270 Acres in Orinda Sold for $225,000 By EBMUD for Residential Development

An agreement for the sale of approximately 270 acres of East Bay Municipal Utility District land in Orinda, for an estimated $225,000, to Denis E. Harran, acting for a group of East Bay businessmen, was announced this week by Louis J. Breuner, president of the EBMUD Board of Directors.

The group, which is in the process of incorporating, lists as its officers:

Denis Harran of Piedmont, chairman of the Board of Directors; Ben Johnson of Orinda, president; Philip Becker of Hayward, vice-president; Elmo R. Smith of Oakland, secretary-treasurer. The new corporation, to be known as Altarinda Estates, Inc., will handle the development and sale of the newly acquired land.

THE PROPERTY involved in this transaction lies between Mt. Diablo Boulevard and the Haciendas del Orinda subdivisions, extending northeasterly from the Catholic Church and Orinda Junior High School sites to Charles Hill and Honey Hill Roads.

The land is restricted by zoning to home sites of not less than one-half acre.

Harran stated that Altarinda Estates will feature the construction of individually designed residences, taking into consideration the best natural features of terrain and foliage. Duplication of design, particularly of exteriors, will be avoided.

IT IS ANTICIPATED that the homes will range in price from $18,000 upwards. All construction will meet or exceed FHA specifications, according to Harran. Architects and builders of better homes will be invited to design and construct these residences, he added.

An active sales program is contemplated for the very near future, and further announcements will be forthcoming, Harran said.

Breuner, in commenting on this large scale sale of the EBMUD's Orinda properties, stated:

"THE DISTRICT is pleased to announce this sale, which will eventually return to the tax roles approximately 270 acres of valuable residential land.

"The added tax revenue which will be received as this land is developed into high class residential properties will be of material help to Contra Costa County.

Fluoridation Support Asked By Civic Affairs

Fluoridation of our drinking water supply was recommended by the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee Monday night.

In a resolution offered by Cecil E. Cantrill of the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association and Fred T. Fox of the Los Amigos Home Owners Association, the delegates, meeting in the Orinda School library, unanimously asked the Orinda Association board to endorse fluoridation.

The resolution, which will be before the board when it meets at 7:30 p.m. next Monday at Orinda School, reads:

"Whereas, the East Bay Municipal Utility District has reiterated its stand that it will not, on its own volition, fluoridate our water supply, it is recommended by the Civic Affairs Committee that the directors of the Orinda Association endorse fluoridation and take immediate steps, in cooperation with other organizations and interested groups, to accomplish that end."

PRIOR TO adoption of the resolution, Civic Affairs Chairman Tevis Thompson asked about the viewpoints of the various organizations represented on Civic Affairs.

Delegates reported that the Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association, the Orinda Junior Woman's Club and the Orinda Estates Owners Association have endorsed fluoridation. Fox stated sentiment is favorable in the Los Amigos group, and Thompson said he encountered no opposition in Moraga Meadows.

IN ANOTHER ACTION, delegates recommended that the Orinda Association board request the County Board of Supervisors to add representatives of unincorporated areas to its 10-member committee to study the garbage-dump situation.

Civic Affairs Secretary Anne Sanford reported that "the garbage people of the county are looking for a new dump." She told of the recent protest against establishment of a dump in Clayton Valley near a new subdivision, the supervisors' rescinding their previous action regarding that dump and the decision to refer garbage dump and rock quarry applications to the County Planning Commission in the future.

"The supervisors appointed a committee to look into the situation," she said. "The committee consists of 10 men, all from incorporated areas. Two are from garbage companies; the rest are from industry.

"IT IS REPORTED that there will be three new proposed dumps in the future—in the Orinda, Lafayette and Danville areas. George Cardinet phoned me and suggested that each of these three communities name someone, with the idea that an effort be made to get the Board of Supervisors to add that person to the committee."

It was stressed that the purpose of the garbage-dump committee would be to determine the wisdom of locating dumps in certain places near residential areas.

ORINDA ROTARY CLUB'S Annual Field Day for local school children tomorrow at the Orinda School grounds is a sure-fire attraction for participants and also for youthful and adult spectators. The plaque on which top winners' names will be engraved is being admired by (left to right) Frank Isola, physical education director for the Orinda School District, who is in charge of the varied events; Tom Phair and Martin Smith, two of the contestants, and Rotary President Frank Shirey. — SUN photo by Mattson

Rotary Field Day Tomorrow Promises Fun, Action for Parents and Kids

Hundreds of youngsters from the Orinda School District will gather tomorrow at Orinda School to demonstrate their prowess in track and field events.

Occasion is the annual Rotary Club Field Day which will start at 9:30 a. m. All events will be under the direction of Frank Shirey, president of the Rotary Club and Rotarian Frank Isola, who is also Director of Physical Education for the Orinda School District.

PARENTS ANNUALLY throng to the school grounds to watch their children compete for ribbons and glory in the many events. Competition will include such exercises as basketball throw for accuracy, baseball throw for distance, broad jump and all the standard track and field events.

Children from all the schools will participate and youngsters from fourth through the eighth grade will compete.

Of course there will be plenty of ribbons for all, but the grand prize is the inscription of the winner's name, by weight and age class, on a permanent plaque kept at the school.

THERE WILL BE separate events for boys and girls, and events will be regulated so that each child has an even chance to compete against his equals.

Refreshments will be available for thirsty parents and contestants alike, courtesy of the Orinda Mothers Club. There will be a small charge for food and drinks to cover the expenses.

All contests and races will be closely supervised by Rotarians to insure fair play and equality. Parents are urged to come out and cheer their youngster on to a ribbon, medal, or even the final goal — inscription of his or her name on that permanent plaque.

Ernest Poll to Head Chamber During Next Year

Orinda Chamber of Commerce elected Ernest Poll as president Tuesday and he will take over his new duties at the June 15 meeting.

Poll is owner of the Village Cleaners.

Other officers elected were Milt Keyser, vice president, Orinda Hardware; Bob Gemetti, re-elected treasurer, American Trust Company, and directors Dr. Edwin J. McCord, retiring president; John Ogden, Ogden's Tween Togs; Jim Hendrickson, Orinda Motors; Clarence Betz, public accountant; Leighton DeMayer, T and D. Liquor and Delicatessen at Black's Market, and George Dodge, investments.

Because of the Memorial Day weekend the June 1 uncheon meeting is cancelled and the next meeting will be June 15.

In other action the chamber agreed to forward a letter to Mrs. Anne Sanford endorsing the American Field Service student exchange program, and introduced a new member, Al Baer, new owner of the Village Shoe Shop.

Orinda Clothing Reaches Korea

It was announced today by the American Friends Service Committee in San Francisco that the clothing received from the Orinda Clothing Drive had been received in Korea last week. The Orinda Clothing Drive material was included in a shipment made from San Francisco in mid-April.

The Friends Service Unit in Korea reporting on this shipment said they had arrived in very good condition and were pleased with the quality of the clothing. The Orinda clothing is being distributed this month in the Chollo Pukto Province, which is located midway on the west coast of South Korea. The Friends Service Unit team has its headquarters in Kunsan, the major western port, and in addition to assisting at the Provincial Hospital, undertakes relief and welfare work with refugees.

The clothing received from the Orinda drive was the fifth drive of this kind held in the spring for the benefit of the American Friends Service Committee and through them, people in various countries overseas.

Mrs. Challiss Gore was chairman.

Orinda Improvers To Elect Trustees

A general meeting of the reactivated Orinda Improvement Association will be held in the Orinda Grammar School auditorium Tuesday at 8 p.m.

The association represents all home owners in all units of Hacienda Homes. On the agenda will be a discussion as to whether Fairway Acres and Bien Venida should be represented by the association.

Civil Defense Sub-Council In Orinda Urged

Recommendation that the Orinda Association Board of Directors take steps toward formation of an Orinda Civil Defense Sub-Council was voted by the Civic Affairs Committee Monday night.

Action was taken after the delegates heard George K. Burton, assistant director of the Contra Costa County Civil Defense and Disaster Council, explain the need for community sub-councils and the procedure to be followed in establishing them.

Burton asked that the Orinda Association suggest a person for the position of sub-council coordinator. Appointment would be by the county civil defense council.

Other officers of the local sub-council, Burton said, would include recorder, public information officer and those in charge of communications, rescue, warden service, transportation, training and education, welfare, fire service, auxiliary police and health and medical services.

"When the nucleus is organized, we can organize the block wardens," Burton continued.

"IF THERE WERE an attack or a disaster of such magnitude that many lives would be lost, confusion would be caused," he stated. "Purpose of civil defense is to minimize that.

"Civil defense is you — it isn't I. It's you taking care of your neighbors.

"We have a basic eight-hour civil defense course, part of Adult Education. We'll set it up for any group of 15 or more people.

"Also, we'd like to see the people use the Red Cross first aid course."

BURTON STRESSED that a sub-council "must have local sponsorship."

"You can tie the sub-council in with the fire department," he pointed out. He mentioned that Orinda firemen had recently finished a radiological defense course given by the county civil defense organization.

A NOTE OF HUMOR was injected at the end of the civil defense discussion when Anne Sanford, Civic Affairs secretary, asked Burton:

"I suppose this is the $64 question — but isn't Sheriff Long's position a little strange?" (Sheriff James N. Long is county director of civil defense.)

"I've worked for Mr. Long for 12 years. He's the best man I ever worked for," Burton replied.

Burton was introduced by Mrs. Arthur Ellwein of 324 Glorietta Boulevard. Civic Affairs Chairman Tevis Thompson introduced Mrs. Ellwein.

Annual Kids Day

Rotarians held their annual Father-Childrens' Day Wednesday, and most of them showed up with one or more youngsters.

Homer Fey, well known cartoonist, entertained the children with sketches. Last week 23 members attended the interclub meeting at Pleasant Hill.

More Width for Highway Next Big Interchange Step

"Good behavior" on the part of Brookwood Road and preparations for widening the north portion of Mt. Diabo Boulevard were reported yestreday by Don Young, resident engineer for the State Division of Highways, as highlights of this week's progress in Orinda Interchange construction.

"Brookwood Road has been behaving — there has been no more movement of the pavement," Young said regarding the recent cracking of the roadway following collapse of portions of the road into an undercut which had been dug to provide for a drainage culvert.

The engineer said that Brookwood Road is now usable and that East Bay Municipal Utility District has placed pipes providing service to homes where water service had been cut off by the bursting of a water main after the road collapse.

Most of the culvert work has been completed, Young said.

WITH THE NORTH half of the north-south underpass completed, concentration will now be on grading work and storm-sewer installation at both ends of the mile-long freeway stretch which will be widened to six lanes.

By facilitating traffic flow, this will permit unhampered building of additional width along the north side of the present state highway, Young explained. Construction of the north-side extra width will probably start in a couple of months, he said.

After that phase is completed, work on the south half of the underpass will get under way, and the widened north half of the boulevard (which eventually will be the three west-bound lanes) will temporarily be used as four lanes — two west-bound and two east-bound — while widening of the south half of the state highway is in progress.

WHEN THE SOUTH-SIDE widening is completed, the result will be three east-bound and three west-bound lanes, the engineer pointed out.

"Work on the south half of the underpass can't be started until the widening along the north portion of Mt. Diablo Boulevard is completed, so that traffic can move in both directions on that portion," he explained.

Young estimated that the over-all job is still "about 20 per cent ahead of schedule" and that progress is "still excellent." However, he said he could not predict any definite completion date because of the uncertainty of next winter's weather — but he stated completion is still anticipated for some time in the spring of 1955.

The two cloverleaf approaches will be the last stages of the job, Young said.

Candidates Will Be at Town Hall Meeting Thursday

Candidates for national, state and county offices will address the people of Orinda at a Candidates Night "Town Hall" gathering at Orinda School auditorium Thursday, 8 p. m.

The meeting is sponsored by the Orinda Association. The event is being arranged by the Civic Affairs Committee. At Monday night's Civic Affairs meeting at Orinda School, Betty Madison of the Orinda Junior Woman's Club agreed to contact various candidates.

Yesterday Mrs. Madison reported the folowing lineup of candidates for the "Town Hall" program:

Congressional — Congressman Robert L. Condon and Al L. Day, Democrats; John F. Baldwin, Republican.

Sheriff—B. W. "Dick" Richardson, Fred R. Nettles, John A. Miller and Lieut. Harry A. Brown. (Major F. Slater and Daryl F. Hutchins have also been invited.)

Constable — Clinton R. Jones, incumbent, and Vincent E. Young.

Recorder — Ralph Cunningham, incumbent, and Robert J. Dommes.

Officials Study Greyhound Bus Load Problems

Both the California Public Utilities Commission and Pacific Greyhound Lines have been conducting load-study checks at Orinda Crossroads and at Folsom and Essex Streets, San Francisco, Del Armstrong of the Contra Costa County Commuters Association reported yesterday.

The Crossroads checkup has been in the mornings, in connection with west-bound commuter traffic, and the San Francisco phase has been in the late afternoons and early evenings, when east-bound commuters board buses to return home to this area.

The load studies followed complaint by President John E. McKirahan of the Commuters Association that re-routing of evening buses from San Francisco has caused an extra 10-minute delay for home arrival of Contra Costa commuters.

Charles Wood Jr., Orinda representative on the association board, reported at last week's meeting of the organization that the question of where west-bound commuters will board buses at Orinda Interchange remains unanswered.

PUC HAS recommended to the governor that enabling legislation be passed which would allow state gas tax funds to be used for construction of turnout lanes from future freeways.

However, even if such legislation is passed, it will come too late to solve the Orinda problem of the near future, Wood said.

Wood told of a recent conference of the State Division of Highways, PUC, Contra Costa County officials, Greyhound and the Commuters Association, at which the Highways Division offered design plans for a section of turnout lane at Orinda for west-bound passengers.

BUT THE HIGHWAYS Division engineers said there were no state funds available for construction, cost of which was estimated at $12,500. None of the other parties would agree to pay the cost.

Wood stated there are three possible methods of financing such a turnout section — supplying of money by "outside interests," interpretation of the law by the attorney general so as to allow expenditure of gas tax funds for the job, or enactment of enabling legislation.

Jack Block, new association director from Orinda, was named chairman of a committee to arrange for a temporary shelter for Crossroads passengers during the remainder of the work on the Interchange project.

McKIRAHAN proposed that manual operation of the Crossroads traffic signals be put into effect during evening commute hours. He stated that "it takes 25 minutes to get from San Francisco to Lake Temescal and three-quarters of an hour to get from there to Orinda Crossroads."

However, a state highways engineer said this week: "Manual operation of the signal would be the worst thing. Instead of relying on statistics for anticipated traffic arrival, you would be relying on the human element. Automatic operation is better."

THE ASSOCIATION president reported that briefs in the matter of Greyhound's application to establish a separate Golden Gate Transit Lines firm for commute traffic in Contra Costa, Marin and San Mateo Counties must be filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission in Washington, D.C., by June 1.

At a recent ICC hearing on the matter in San Francisco, Attorney Spurgeon Avakian represented the Contra Costa and Marin commuter organizations. Early this month the Contra Costa County Board of Supervisors authorized contribution of $500 to Avakian for his efforts in this case.

County Has Not Decided on Route Of Orinda Highway

County Road Commissioner Victor W. Sauer stated yesterday that he has conferred with Orinda Country Club representatives on possible use of small portions of club land in the future widened Orinda Highway.

REGARDING RELOCATION of the road behind Orinda Village, favored by many local groups, Sauer reported his office is still trying to obtain more information, including size of culverts which would have to be built over the creek, ground condition and costs.

"There are two basis routes as possibilities," he explained. "These are the existing road and relocation bcak of the Village.

"When all the necessary information is on hand, we will be in good shape to boil it down and see where we stand. We'll meet with the Orinda groups and discuss the matter further with them."

He said that he recently toured the golf course with a club committee and asked the committee for ideas on the subject, including what the club would deem fair price for giving up small portions of its land.

"This is not the same as the idea of several months ago which was discarded — cutting through the golf course," he stressed.

"Such a route is impossible. Obviously, there is no intention to put the golf course out of business. Whether San Pablo Dam Road (Orinda Highway) is relocated behind Orinda Village or whether the widened road goes along the existing route, there will be hookthroughs here and there.

"THE MEETING with the golf club people was just to discuss a phase of this and to ask for their suggestions."

Sauer said that among those with whom he met were Secretary George Hauerken of the Country Club and Lindsey Spight.

"The Country Club committee is studying the matter now," he continued.

Sauer emphasized "there is nothing definite yet" regarding possible transactions with the Country Club or in connection with plans generally for widening Orinda Highway under the county road bond program.

SAUER SAID he has accepted an invitation from the Orinda Association board to appear at its June 28 meeting to discuss problems of route selection for Orinda Highway.

"My presentation will not be about any specific selection, because a route will not have been chosen by then," he stated. "I will discuss the general problems involved in route selection."

New Pine Grove School Discussed By Civic Groups

An informal meeting between representatives of the Orinda School District and Orinda civic organizations was held Monday night to discuss plans for the new Pine Grove School.

Representing the school district was Edgar Stewart, president of the Orinda School Board; Joseph Sheaff, superintendent of schools, and Architect Jack Buchter.

Citizens present included R. J. Evans of the Lost Valley Community Association; Arthur R. Weatherbe, Moraga Meadows Association; Art Livingston, Glorietta Improvement Association and Bud Coburn of Orinda Estates.

BUCHTER PRESENTED the preliminary plans for the 7th and 8th grade school and discussion was held on construction, heating, lighting, roofing, public utilities, parking and general site development.

Present plans include 12 classrooms, a home-making room, industrial arts space, an administrative unit, library, teachers room, nurse's room, general offices and an all-purpose room.

According to Sheaff the all-purpose room will be 80 by 48 feet and will have a stage and kitchen.

SHEAFF INDICATED that two more weeks will go into planning the units and then plans will be forwarded to the State Department of Schoolhouse Planning for approval .

"We hope to be able to call for bids about September 1 and have the building ready for use by September of 1955," said Sheaff.

Condon to Speak At Demo Dinner

A "Meet Your Candidate" dinner will be held Monday at 7 p.m. at the Orinda Community Church by the Orinda Democrats.

Principal speaker will be Congressman Robert Condon, a candidate for re-election. Edward N. Munns, candidate for Assemblyman in the 10th Assembly District, will also be present, according to John S. Glascock, president.

Glascock pointed out that this meeting is one of many being held by Democratic clubs of Contra Costa County to encourage the voting public to meet their candidates and to let their candidates know their feelings on a personal basis.

Proceeds will be used for campaign funds. Tickets are still available at $2 each by calling Orinda 3044 or DRake 6-8947.

Young GOP to Hold Work Night

"Work Night," sponsored by Orinda Young Republicans, will be held Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Orinda Community Church.

Slated as the final pre-primary gathering of local Young Republicans and their friends, the event will feature appearances of several candidates and local chairmen, music, impromptu entertainment, and free refreshments.

Serving as co-chairmen are Mrs. William McGuire and Mrs. Duane Neuenschwander.

Congress, Sheriff Candidates Debate Scheduled for June 2

Topics to be debated by candidates for Congress from the Sixth District and for county sheriff at a public forum June 2 at Acalanes High School were decided this week.

Sponsored by The SUN, the candidates' debate will be held at Acalanes Gymnasium.

Congressional candidates A. L. Day (Democrat), John Baldwin (Republican) and Robert L. Condon (incumbent, Democrat), will debate the issues facing the 84th Congress which convenes in 1955.

The four major candidates for sheriff, Harry A. Brown, Fred Nettles, John Miller and Boyd W. Richardson, will debate the question: "The sheriff's department can be improved — civil defense, gambling, sub-stations, civil fees and mileage, other changes."

All candidates in both debates will be given eight minutes for opening statements and three minutes for rebuttal. They will draw for order of speaking.

Each candidate will be free to choose either the negative or positive side on each section of his question.

The candidates' debate is designed to keep opponents to the same general themes and to give each ample opportunity to answer remarks made by his fellow candidates.

The affair is presented as a community service and will be open to the public, free of charge.

Fire Department Gives Hours for Burning Trash

Inspector Bill Koch of the Orinda Fire Department cautioned residents this week to be sure and obey the burning regulations now that the fire season is approaching.

"After June 15, no open bonfires are allowed," said Koch. "Exception will be made in cases of absolute safety, for which purposes a special permit must be obtained.

"The use of approved and inspected incinerators is permitted the entire year. The Fire Department must be notified before it is lighted, and burning hours are from sun-up to 11 a.m.

"County Ordinance 180 prohibits the possession or shooting of fireworks with the exception of cap pistols. A fine of up to $500 or six months imprisonment or both is the penalty for violation of this code."

Koch announced that the fire department wished to make the laws known in order to avoid any misunderstanding or violation as to burning regulations.

Mt. Diablo Junior C of C Seeks Study Of Borough City Government for Area

Next steps in exploring possibility of a borough type of city government for this area, instead of separate incorporated communities, will be discussed by the Mt. Diablo Junior Chamber of Commerce at its meeting at 8 p.m. Monday at Rancho Grande, Lafayette.

At its last general membership meeting, the junior chamber passed a resolution to investigate possibility of having the Coro Foundation of San Francisco conduct such a study. President Howard Koch of Walnut Creek appointed Ted Barcelon of Lafayette as chairman of the governmental committee to push the project, and Dick Emory, also of Lafayette, was named vice-chairman.

Barcelon, Emory and another committee member, Ted Taylor of Orinda, conferred Monday with Ken Norris, director of Coro's consulting service department, at the Coro office in San Francisco. On the same day, Barcelon talked by phone with the League of California Cities in Berkeley about the idea.

"IN OUR DISCUSSIONS with the groups we have contacted," Barcelon said yesterday, "it is indicated that unincorporated areas, under the California Constitution, would have to become an incorporated city for a period of time before being able to be operated as a city under the charter form of government.

"Whether or not this interpretation of the provisions of the Constitution is the only interpretation permissable and whether or not the various steps could more or less be taken at one time are most likely matters for the state attorney general to issue an opinion upon."

In any case, interpretations of the State Constitution in connection with this matter do not in any way influence the desirability of having a study conducted as to feasibility of the borough type government for this area, Barcelon stressed.

KOCH EMPHASIZED that the junior chamber is not favoring any particular type of administration but only wishes to have a qualified analysis made on the different types of governments that might be suitable for the suburban type of living.

"The Constitution of the State of California provides for the establishment of the borough type of government, whereby the city may be divided into boroughs or districts, and that each such borough or district may exercise such general or special municipal powers as may be provided for in the charter of the city," Barcelon explained.

"In other words, instead of each area incorporating separately, one over-all city would be established and each local area would become a borough to handle through its own council its zoning problems and other problems of a local nature.

"EACH BOROUGH would also elect a representative to the central city government, which would act upon problems of general area interest."

Barcelon pointed out that the borough plan is the "most flexible" and that advantages would include:

1. Only one set of city officers would be required, resulting in tax-saving.

2. Each borough would be able to remain partially independent of other member boroughs and would thus be able to solve its own local problems at local expense, while still having representation on the central governing body for matters of citywide interest.

BARCELON DECLARED that the idea of a borough type city is not in opposition to incorporation studies in Lafayette and Orinda. Study of feasibility of the borough plan could be integrated with the individual community incorporation studies, he said.

Tariel Hearing Next Wednesday

The controversial side yard application of P. C. Tariel in Orinda Hills is scheduled for another hearing before the County Planning Commission Wednesday night.

Several weeks ago the commission favorably recommended Tariel's application for 10-foot and 15-foot side yards for a residence on Lot 36 in Orinda Hills, an R-A zone, but the Board of Supervisors, after receiving protests, referred the matter back to the Planning Commission.

Mrs. T. D. Sanford, representing the Women's Planning League of Contra Costa County, told the supervisors that the deviation sought by the applicant was an example of what had been feared about a year and a half ago when local groups protested county approval of the Fred T. Wood subdivision.

SIMILAR OBJECTIONS were expressed in a letter from James G. Hupp.

Last week the Tariel application was on the Planning Commission agenda. Hupp argued against it. The hearing was put over to next Wednesday night.

ANOTHER ORINDA Hills side yard request was granted last Wednesday night by the commission, despite an objecting letter from Hupp.

This application was by Earl Mason, for a 10-foot side yard for a carport on Lot 5, on the north side of Estates Drive.

Hupp asked that the application not be heard until the date of the Tariel hearing.

However, the commission ruled in Mason's favor after hearing Mason explain he is setting his house back about 70 feet because of the topography. According to Associate County Planner George Brenner, the "pie-shaped" lot is 125 feet wide at the front and 66 feet wide at the back.

Standard side yards in an R-A zone are 15-and-20 feet.

Moraga Meadows Plans to Build Pool

Definite steps were taken Tuesday night to establish a community swimming pool for Moraga Meadows.

At a meeting at the home of Frank A. Leibold at 301 Overhill Road, volunteers, who recently made a survey regarding interest in a community pool in the Moraga Meadows area, reported that of 250 families contacted, over 200 were interested in such a project and willing to support it financially.

IT WAS DECIDED to set up a temporary organiaztion. Carli s l e Lane, attorney for the group, was instructed to draw up incorporation papers in the name of Meadow Pool.

Elected as temporary officers were Leibold, president; Lane, vice-president; Mrs. Walter Haefele, secretary; Mrs. Robert Creighton, publicity secretary; F. W. Thrane, Philip S. Muscheid and Francis Allen, directors, and Lester M. Chapman, membership chairman.

SEVERAL SITES are being considered. According to Mrs. Haefele, the group hopes to start building the pool next April, so that the pool will be ready for use by the summer of 1955.

During the survey, effort was made to reach everyone in the Moraga Meadows area, but some were missed. The group asks those missed who are interested to get in touch with Chapman at 166 Overhill Road (phone: Orinda 8220).

IDEA FOR A community pool was first discussed by the Moraga Meadows Association. The association's by-laws prevent it from sponsoring such a project, so the volunteer survey group and plans for a Meadow Pool organization developed.

The proposed pool will be for Moraga Meadows residents only. The Meadow Pool board will meet the third Tuesday night of each month, at board members' homes.

Mothers Plan Gala Event In 'Spring Bonnet Tea'

Climaxing the social season, the Orinda Mothers Club Spring Bonnet Tea is on the calendar for Tuesday from 2 to 4 p.m.

The mothers of Orinda children and faculty of all four schools have been invited.

The setting for this annual event is the spacious modern home and grounds of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rothafel at 38 Oakwood Road. Refreshments will be served on the charming inner court.

THE TEA TRADITIONALLY honors new and retiring officers. Receiving with President Mrs. Miles B. Sutliffe will be Mesdames Coleman Huntley, Vernon Axelson, Rees Paine, George Drysdale, Earl Wilder, James Seaman, Carl Pedersen and Charles Lohse.

Also to be honored are the retiring executive board members, Mesdames Norman Ketsdever, A. D. Henry, William Witter, Thomas Connolly, George Merxiam, Henry Harris, Gerhard Burde, Mark Snover, Thomas Mika, Miles Hudson, Ernest Starkman, Jack Moylan, F. B. Winkworth and E. J. Unruh, who will complete their terms of office July 1.

A DELIGHTFUL AFTERNOON has been planned by the kindergarten mothers of all schools who are the hostesses for the day. Mrs. William Witter is in charge of general arrangements assisted by Mrs. Francis Gillespie, chairman of Tuesday's event, and Mesdames D. Thomas, Ray Meyer, Clinton DeWitt Jr., Robert Hart and M. Merriam, room mothers.

Mrs. Channing Kilburn, noted for her beautiful arrangements will be in charge of the flowers for the affair.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mesdames Marvin Bonds, Robert Bigler, J. H. Schwarck, past presidents; and Mrs. Anthony Cianciarulo, wife of a member of the board of trustees.

New Protest Filed On Thomas Rezone

Another protest letter against Dr. Wilbert F. Thomas' application for Retail Business rezoning of Lot 42 at the southeast corner of Moraga Highway and Southwood Drive came before the Board of Supervisors Tuesday and was referred to the County Planning Commission.

The letter was from T. Sivary, Box 208, Orinda.

The controversial applications of Dr. Thomas and of East Bay Municipal Utility District are in the hands of the Planning Commission's technical staff, following hearings before the commission.

Last week the supervisors granted the commission additional 90-day extensions for the commission's preparation of reports and recommendations on the two matters.

EBMUD SEEKS Retail Business rezoning for some 52 acres of Crossroads-area land, including the Pine Grove at the northeast corner of the Crossroads.

The Board of Supervisors has indicated it will act on the Dr. Thomas and EBMUD applications before completion of an Orinda master plan. It has stated that such a plan should be ready within the next half-year.

THE ORINDA ASSOCIATION and its Orinda Planning Committee have urged that there be no major rezoning here until completion of a master plan for at least the central portion of Orinda. But the supervisors say the two applications were filed prior to the association's request.

In preparation for a possible "adverse" decision, the association is preparing to conduct a countywide referendum petition after the supervisors' ruling.

DUTCH AUCTION

An interesting and worthwhile event will be held next week in Orinda. It is a luncheon and Dutch auction. sponsored by the local branch of Lighthouse Auxiliary for Recreation for the Blind to be held from noon to 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Johnson, 3 Orchard Road.

The affair will be held on the terrace and will feature a pin money plant bar. All the proceeds will benefit the Enchanted Hills Summer Camp for blind children. Chairman is Mrs. Lucius Kentfield.

Mrs. Earl Vicars, president of the Orinda branch, attended an amazing demonstration by blind children at the St. Francis May 8. It showed how effectively these children can be integrated with sighted youngsters and demonstrated the skill of the blind children in crafts, dancing, song and dramatics.

WORK TRIP

Tomorrow the local ladies will journey to Enchanted Hills camp near Napa, with rakes, brooms and hoes in tow, to lend their energy towards readying the 300 acre camp for summer use. Mrs. James Chapple and Mrs. Jess Long are in charge of making new trail signs in Braille. There are guide ropes all over the camp and the signs are placed where the children can feel them and learn the direction to various points. . . .

Orinda branch has donated two barrels of HTH, which keeps the swimming pool germ-free, and hopes to raise enough money to donate another barrel. They are also planning to eventually make better arrangements for a library at the camp. There are many Braille books without an adequate place to allow the children convenient use of them.

It must certainly be rewarding work to watch the sightless children enjoying trout fishing, horse back riding and swimming, and sitting around the campfire at night singing happily.

NEW MEMBERS of the group are Mesdames William Bristow, Gene Hopper, Perry Harner, David Bruck and Earl Evans Jr.

All this information was obtained from Mrs. Odie Monahan over the phone, while three little Monahans and two little Bedecarres did their darnedest to interrupt every two seconds.

SWIM TIME

Frank Leibold called to say that if any one in the Moraga Meadows area was missed in the community swimming pool survey and is interested, to contact him at 301 Overhill Road, Orinda 2044.

Another worker who is interested in the pool is Jack Bloch, who is also the father of twin girls born in March. The Blochs have two sons, 8 and 5 years old, and are certainly thrilled with their new little daughters.

The nursery school dance was a tremendous success as always. There were hundreds of people, a very genial atmosphere, good band and besides that, we won a prize!

Another big success was the May-fair luncheon and fashion show at the Claremont. Among the many Orindans present were the Mesdames Gene Tartt, Jack Grant, Kenneth Mirov, Calvin Hagstrom, Milton Winters, Rodney Willitt, Hans Altorfer and Howard Gravelle.

Stork Club

SHERIDAN LEY

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ley are the proud parents of a brand new first child, a baby daughter named Sheridan Jean, born Monday at Merritt Hospital in Oakland, and weighing 8 pounds 8 ounces.

The Leys are presently staying with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas St. Hill, Jeanne's parents, in Orinda.

Nursery Group Asks Rummage

Many Orinda residents are participating in the rummage sale being held June 9 in Larkin Hall, San Francisco, to benefit the Golden Gate Kindergarten Auxiliary.

Proceeds will help support the Phoebe Hearst and Stanford Nursery Schools, which offer complete ing to Mesdames Lynn Bell, Richard Hanlin, Henry Strickland and Robert B. Williams, all of Orinda. Items in demand include apparel of all types, household and garden equipment, antiques, kitchen utensils, jewelry, furniture, draperies and linens.

Any contributions will be picked up if a call is placed with Mrs. Hanlin at Orinda 2856.

80th Birthday Party

Mrs. Ernest Drews, her husband and son Carl spent Mothers' Day in Loomis celebrating the 80th birthday of her mother, Mrs. Mary Williams, a frequent Orinda visitor.

This was also the occasion of a family home coming for Mrs. William's four daughters and one son, besides three sisters and one brother, all Californians, who with their children and close friends numbered in all 125 guests, enjoying a very happy day.

Days Are Warmer, Rainfall Less

There was no rain this week, so the Orinda hills will keep on developing their coat of summer tan. Total rainfall remains at 25.39 inches.

However, temperatures soared into the high 80's for a couple of days to give Orinda residents a hint that summer days and barbecue time are coming.

Here they are, day by day:

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Community

The 15th birthday of the Orinda Community Church will be celebrated in a special Sunday morning service at 11 o'clock when Rev. Fred R. Morrow will conduct the anniversary worship, assisted by Ray L. Welles.

"This Church" will be the theme of a triple presentation, with Mrs. L.S. Barden speaking on "Its Past," Fred N. Twining, lay Moderator of the congregation, on "Its Present," and the Rev. Mr. Morrow on "Its Future." Following the service a birthday cake will be cut in the Fellowship Hall, and coffee served.

Director of Music Margaret Popovich will lead the chapel choir in Tours' "Praise God in His Holiness," with Daniel Popovich at the memorial organ. He will also play a "Symphonic Poem" by Liszt, "Dream Pantomime" by Humperdinck, and a Bach "Fugue."

Half-hour chapel services will be held at 9:30 for youth and adults, and at 10 o'clock for junior grades. Four other departments offer worship and instruction at 9:30 in their own quarters. Organist for the earlier chapel services is Marena Hewitt, whose organ selections are announced as follows: "How Lovely Are the Messengers," by Mendelssohn; "Andante" by Hummel, and "Toccatina" by Lardelli.

Groups for intermediate and high school age young people meet at the Fellowship Hall Sunday evening at 5:30 and 6:45 under the general direction of Mr. Welles. Everett D. Howe is general superintendent of education.

Lutheran

Five young people, Diane Busch, Carole Jones, Richard Bekedam, Harold Ecklund and Hugh Oliphant will be received into adult membership of the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, 294 Orchard Road, by confirming their faith in Jesus Christ as Son of God, at the 11 a.m. service Sunday. Pastor Edward R. Andersen will speak at the 8 and 11 o'clock services on the topic, "Ask and Ye Shall Receive."

This class has been meeting weekly with the pastor to be instructed in the teachings of Christianity as it is interpreted by the Lutheran Church. This training included the five main topics: The Ten Commandments, the Apostles' Creed, the Lord's Prayer, the Sacraments, and the responsibilities of a confirmed church member.

MRS. H. B. BIRKHEAD'S Sunday school class will present the program for the 9:30 and 10 a.m. Sunday school worship services. The children will give a review of their Sunday school training during the year with an explanation of their work by the teacher.

The Women's Guild meets at the church Tuesday at 8 p.m. to hear a report from Mrs. Harry Oliphant and Mrs. E. S. Heckathorn who were delegates to the Women's Missionary Convention of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Pacific Southwest held at the Trinity Lutheran Church in Long Beach May 3 through 6.

A film produced by the American Bible Society and first shown at this convention will also be shown at this meeting.

Guild Lunches, Hears Talk on 'Goodwill'

The May meeting of the Women's Guild of Orinda Community Church was held in the church hall May 4, beginning with a luncheon served by members of Section 3.

The tables and hall were very attractively decorated with spring flowers.

Devotions were by Miss Ruth Price.

The program chairman, Mrs. John Gilmore, introduced the speakers, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Flegel, who head the Oakland Goodwill Center. Mrs. Flegel told how their center, one of 105 throughout the United States, collected the unwanted clothing, furniture, tools, etc., when asked to call for them at homes, then washed, mended or repaired them, so they could be sold for a very nominal price to the poor.

But, she said, the greatest work of Goodwill was in providing work to do this mending, washing, painting and repairing to handicapped workers who in many cases could never hope to get a job in any other industry. The therapeutic value of employment and even a small income made all the difference between hopeful security and miserable despair. They have taught an epileptic not only how to work but also to read and write!

Mr. Flegel showed a most interesting movie, a sort of composite picture of all the Goodwill Industries of the country.

Church Women to Name Officers

Election of officers will be held at the regular meeting of St. Stephen's Woman's Auxiliary Thursday at the home of Mrs. Eugene Shurtleff, 570 Miner Road, at 12:30 p.m.

A report on the luncheon and card party held today at the homes of Mesdames William Fleager, Bruce Anderson, Kenneth St. Clair, John Bartlett and in the Undercroft of the church, will be given by Mrs. Robert Bigler, president of the auxiliary.

Mrs. Charles Hill will talk on "Holy Communion" in relation to a study of the Prayer Book. Mrs. James Brown will lead the devotion.

Hostesses in addition to Mrs. Shurtleff are Mesdames William Sheppard and O. B. Pitkin. Members of the nominating committee that will make a report at the meeting are Mesdames Arthur Johnson, Walter Christie, John Bartlett and Ben Johnson.

Guild Section Sees Movies

Guild Section One met May 11 at the home of Miss Anne Hazen and Miss Ruth Price. After refreshments served by the hostesses, Miss Hazen showed colored pictures of scenes she and Miss Price had visited.

The devotions were given by Mrs. Ernest Drews.

The group was reminded by its chairman, Mrs. Carrie Brown, that it was to sponsor the Straw Hat Revue June 16 in Lafayette.

Scout Salute . .

Showboat Meet

Cub Scout Pack 212 held an old fashioned "Mississippi Showboat" meeting last Friday at the Orinda Community Church. Clinton Scarich made the arrangements and conducted the program, assisted by Mrs. Jane Jacobus.

A Bobcat ceremony was held for Teddy Behr preceding the festivities. He was accompanied by his father.

Master of ceremonies was Cub Scout Tim Sheldon of Den 1. After the denner's report, Den 7 played "Swanee River" on the piano, ukelele, clarinet, tamboreen and bells. A piano selection, "A Dixie Jitterbug," played by Roger Hoyer, was followed by two clarinet solos by John Thurston, "Oh, Suzanna" and "Dixie." Den 12 had a minstrel show with jokes.

Gary Swedberg of Den 3 played "Old Black Joe" on the piano, then the entire den sang "Old Man River." As Mrs. A. C. Flenner played the piano, the boys played on kitchen utensils converted into musical instruments. The skit of Den 4 consisted of jokes by all the boys and a clarinet selection by Barry Howard entitled, "Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground."

Den 2's denner's report was followed by a pantomime to the recording of "Mississippi Mud" by all the boys, and then a selection on the trumpet by Stephen Smith.

DEN 1 BEGAN WITH JOKES by the boys followed by the solo singing of "Old Folks at Home" by Gary Center. The interlocutor for the skit was master of ceremonies, Tim Sheldon. To the recording of "Oh, 'dem Golden Slippers," the boys played on various instruments. Following was the singing of "The Robert E. Lee" by Tim Shedon. As he finished his solo, the entire audience was encouraged to join in the singing of a chorus as the boys of Den 1 shuffled out. The piano accompaniment for the entire skit was played by Miss Gayle Center.

The offering of Den 5 was much appreciated by all the cubs and their younger guests because bags of popcorn were tossed out.

One new recruit was introduced to Cub Scouting: John Blades. The announcement was made that baseball games and practice would continue on Saturday mornings at 10.

One years pins were awarded to the following boys: Scott Huntley, Roger Roos, Charles Aberham and Dillon Scofield. Denner stripes went to Jimmy Crall and Gary Center. Assistant Denner stripes went to Tom Fiske and Michael Edwards. Achievement awards were presented to Michael Gilmore, Scott Huntley, Eric Ramsing, Michael Edwards, Jimmy Crall, Michael Concannon, George Hauer, Johnny Cooper, Paul Rieger, Bob Clifford, Brian Traynor, Roger Roos, Jay Jacobus, Jack Gilbert, Darrell Courtright, Roger Hoyer and Laurie Chapple.

The announcement of the June activities has been delayed pending further negotiations, but will be announced as soon as the final arrangements have been made.

Showboat Meet

Cub Scout Pack 225 held its meeting May 8 at Orinda School.

Den 2 was in charge of the opening and closing ceremonies. In keeping with the theme of the month, "Mississippi Showboat" Den 2 presented Cubmaster Ed Winthers, with a black top hat ,white vest, wooden cane and a large wooden die. Mr. Winthers dressed in this gala attire, proceeded to direct the party on the Cubs' showboat.

Each den gave a skit in keeping with the theme.

Pack 225 is supplying two flowering cherry trees and helping to plant them Sunday at the landscaping program of the Glorietta School. Every parents and Cub is asked to come with a shovel to help with this program.

A WEBELOS CEREMONY was held in honor of Doug Hudson who has completed all Cub requirements and is ready to become a Scout. The following Cubs helped with the candle lighting: John Dimpfel, Jim McNamara and Clyde McDonald.

The boys receiving achievement awards were Ronnie Hudson, Mike Halbert, Robert Shepard, Charles White, Dale Frakes, Billy Powell and Perry Popovich.

Arrow awards were: Steven Smith, John Dimpfel, Roger Jessup, Mark Bauhofer, Tom Ballard, Richard Stevenson, William Pariani, Kenneth White and Ronnie Hudson.

Other awards were Jim McNamara, Eric Fink, Newton Hildebrand, Robert McLeod, John Buckter, Robert Shepard, Charles White and Dale Frakes.

Perry Popovich and Clyde McDonald received a gold arrow on their Lion rank. Year stars went to David Mossotto and Stephen Thomas.

Pack 225 is looking forward to a closing picnic June 5. Council meeting Monday evening was held at Mrs. Arthur White's, 117 Meadow View Road.

SHOP at HOME and you GAIN these 5 Ways!

1. Your hometown merchant offers nationally-known merchanise at nationally established prices . . . the same prices you pay elsewhere.
2. Your local merchant guarantees what he sells.
3. Your hometown store does not offer poorer quality "sale" merchandise as leaders to bring you in.
4. Your local stores are here to serve you every day of the year.
5. You save money when you shop at home. Just figure in the cost of gas, oil, car depreciation, parking lot, baby sitter, lunches, etc., that you add on to the cost of your purchases when you DON'T Shop at Home.

And remember; your hometown merchant is your neighbor. His business pays taxes to help support your hometown needs . . . just as you do. He helps in all community affairs . . . just as you.

School Voters to Elect Trustees, Decide Financial Measures Today

Voters will go to he polls today to elect trustees and decide financial issues in local school districts.

In only the Orinda and Moraga Elementary School Districts where there are no money issues and trustees run unopposed, will citizens decide nothing in effect.

IN ALAMO, voters will decide whether to increase the board from three to five members and vote on candidates for the possible additional posts as well as a regular position.

Robert J. Bertrand, Robert C. Husted, Mary S. Iverson, Alois Kremser and Bethel Nadine Van Tassell have filed for the additional while Allan F. Doran, William E. Nickerson and Edward C. Thomas have filed for the regular.

In Walnut Creek, incumbent DeWitt Krueger runs unopposed while Irving Kraemer, Phyllis Hartwig, Frances Jensen, Shirley Madsen, Geraldine Green and Daisy M. Jacobus have filed for two additional positions.

INCUMBENT Elizabeth W. Freeman is unopposed in Lafayette, but Sara Lee "Chris" Adams, Griffith A. Squire, Theodore E. Newman, F. C. Merner and Dr. E. R. Ligon seek two additional posts. A $400,000 bond issue will also be decided.

Mt. Diablo Unified District voters will choose between incumbent Doris Loveridge and Oscar J. Durand.

WHILE ACALANES High School Trustee Alice McBride is not opposed, a raise in the district tax limitation to $1.75 will be balloted on.

Harold Furst of Lafayette is running against incumbent O. J. Wohlgemuth in Ward IV of the Contra Costa Junior College District.

An increase in the tax limitation to $1.45 will be decided in Canyon where Allen R. Crawford is running unopposed. Also without opposition are Seaver A. Ballard in Orinda and Allen R. Crawford in Canyon.

JC Trustee Vote Today in Ward 4

Voters in Ward IV of the Contra Costa Junior College District will go to the polls today to elect their first trustee under the new ward system.

Ward IV includes all or parts of Kensington, Berkeley, Park, Orinda, Saranap, Moraga, Canyon, Diablo, San Ramon, Alamo, Danville, Tassajara, Ygnacio Valley, Walnut Creek, El Cerrito, Lafayette, and a small segment of Richmond.

THERE ARE TWO candidates, O. J. Wohlgemuth of Walnut Creek, the incumbent, and Harold Furst of Lafayette.

Voting places will be the same as for various other school elections which take place on the same day, including those for elementary and high school trustees. With five exceptions, the voting places will be open continuously from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

The exceptions are: Canyon Elementary chool, 3 p. m. to 7 p. m.; Alamo Elementary School, 12 noon to 8 p. m.; Moraga Elementary School, 3 p. m. to 7 p. m.; San Ramon Elementary School, 2 p. m. to 7 p. m.; May Joint School, 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

IN SOME INSTANCES, county precinct lines have been changed since the junior college district wards were established last June, so that some precincts lie partly in one ward, and partly in another. Persons living in those parts of the precincts which are not in Ward IV will not be eligible to receive junior college trustee ballots this year, even though they do receive ballots for othe rschool elections in their precincts.

These persons are not being deprived of their vote, since they will go to he polls next year or the year after, when junior college district elections are held in their respective wards. At those times, those who vote this year will not be voting.

6 Local Juniors In Bach Musical

Six young local musicians are now scheduled to perform in the Second Annual Junior Bach Festival in Berkeley June 21-24.

According to a tentative program announced Monday, Constance Stafford of Walnut Creek will perform on the organ June 22.

On June 23, Hope Hallenbeck of Lafayette and Henry Melendres of Pleasant Hill will play piano.

On June 24, Robert Eberhart of Orinda will play the violin and Nadine Noecker of Walnut Creek and Barbara Stern of Orinda will play piano.

Camera Club to Meet Tuesday

Contra Costa Camera Club will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday in Las Lomas High School, room 101.

Paul Dekar judged a recent color competition with the fololwing results: Group A—First, Ed Nelson, Berkeley; second, third and fifth, Gertrude Hubbell, Walnut Creek; and fourth, Irene Spencer, Walnut Creek.

Group B—First, George Van Randall, Wainut Creek; second, Cliff Smith, Lafayette; third, Kathryn Smith, Lafayette; fourth, Don Hanson, San Francisco, and fifth, Frances Randall, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Hubbell and Jim Hokanson of Concord won honorable mention in a national competition in Dayton, Ohio, sponsored by the Photographic Society of America.

All interested persons have been invited to join the club which meets the second and fourth Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. at the high school. Field trips are also held.

Endorsement Told

Democratic Central Committee candidates endorsed by the County Federation of Democratic Clubs have been announced by Tom Kendall, publicity chairman.

In the Third Supervisorial District they are Cappy Ricks, Mary Edwards, Bruce Doerner and Kendall while David Comstock and John S. Hopkins are endorsed in the Second District.

The endorsements were also approved by 12 Democratic clubs at a convention in Martinez in March.

It'll Be 'Sun Shopping News' After This Week

With next week's issue, the shopping news of The SUN newspapers will have a new name.

Effective next Thursday, the name will be changed from Contra Costa Shopping News to Sun Shopping News.

Reason for the name-change is that Sun Shopping News is a more appropriate name for the widely circulated, action-resulting shopping news of The SUN papers.

The SUN and Sun Shopping News will have a couple of new phone numbers, too. Effective Sunday, our Lafayette number will be ATlantic 4-4444 and our Orinda number will be CLifford 4-4343. Our Walnut Creek number will continue for the time being as at present—YEllowstone 4-6777.

Brown Urges Experienced Policeman For Sheriff's Post, Outlines Platform

Calling for county law enforcement by an experienced police officer instead of a politician, Lieut. Harry A. Brown this week continued his campaign for sheriff of Contra Costa County.

At the completion of over a month of campaigning throughout the county, Brown expressed optimism.

RUNNING AS an independent, Brown is a lieutenant in the county sheriff's office, currently on leave of absence.

Father of seven children and a resident of Alamo, he is a veteran of over 10 years of police work.

He was a security officer in the U. S. Navy ,a narcotics agent with the U. S. Customs Service and has served three years in the sheriff's department here, working his way up from deputy to lieutenant, the highest civil service post in the department.

HE HAS OUTLINED a platform calling for a strict shutdown on gambling and vice, a new system of patrol cars furnished by the county, a new policy of returning to the county all civil fees collected by deputies and establishment of a juvenile guidance program.

One of his opponents, Boyd W. Richardson of Richmond, is running "with the good wishes" of Sheriff James Long, according to his own statements.

Richardson has also expressed satisfaction with Long's record as sheriff.

The other major candidate, John Miller, was sheriff before Long at the time when Contra Costa County was "wide open" to all kinds of gambling.

SPEAKING THROUGHOUT the county, Brown has stated that the sheriff has been renting patrol cars to the county; he is calling for immediate correction of this situation, urging that the county take over patrol cars, thus saving thousands for county taxpayers.

In addition, Brown says that fees collected for service of civil papers by deputies on the county payroll will be turned over to the county if he is elected sheriff.

The sheriff's department could help to reduce the increasing juvenile delinquency in the county, Brown says, urging establishment of a guidance agency to work with problem children.

SUCH AN AGENCY would review such children and help to place them in a county-wide recreation program before they actually break the law and go to the juvenile home, he says.

Brown endorses the plans of the County Citizens Committee for Establishment of a Rehabilitation Camp for Boys and promises that he will work with that group if elected.

Directors of volunteer committees in Orinda, Walnut Creek, Pleasant Hill and Danville have been announced.

Clovey LaCroix, nationally known recreation leader, will head the committee working in the Danville area.

Boone Robinson and Mrs. Mitchell Farrar are co-directors of the committee working in Orinda.

Frank W. Salfingere will direct the committee in the Pleasant Hill area with the assistance of Walter Clark, Mrs. Paul Dane and Mrs. Malcolm Sagenkahn.

In Walnut Creek John Laverty and Charles Bosley are co-directors of the area committee.

CC Symphony to Play Thursday

The Contra Costa Symphony Orchestra, composed of East Contra Costa Junior College Community Orchestra players and those from Acalanes Community Orchestra, will present a spring concert at Acalanes High School auditorium at 8 p. m. Thursday.

The program will include Verdi's Grand March from Aida; Haydn's Symphony No. 100, "Military"; three dances from Henry VIII by German, and von Weber's Oberon Overture.

New Telephone Numbers in Effect Sunday Morning

Local telephone users will be able to dial directly many numbers which they could not reach without going through the operator after 12:01 a.m. Sunday morning.

At that time new numbers with the prefixes CLifford 4 and CLifford 6 will go into service in Orinda and ATlantic 3 and ATlantic 4 prefixes will go into effect in Lafayette.

This will affect these areas as follows:

ORINDA RESIDENTS will be able to dial Lafayette numbers directly by simply dialing the ATlantic prefix and the number desired. They will also be able to dial all Moraga numbers with a DRake prefix by simply dialing the desired number.

East Bay calls can be accomplished by dialing "99," then the proper number.

LAFAYETTE RESIDENTS with the new ATlantic prefix will be able to dial the new Orinda CLifford numbers directly, and also the Walnut Creek numbers with the YEllowstone prefix.

In addition, they will be able to dial all Moraga numbers with a DRake prefix directly.

New telephone directories will be issued prior to Sunday, and all new numbers will be found listed in them. Telephone company representatives recommend that you destroy your old telephone book as the numbers are obsolete after Sunday.

M. H. MADDOCKS, Pacific Telephone district manager for the Orinda area, and Howard Greenhalgh, manager for the Walnut Creek-Lafayette area, suggest that the new numbers will be easier to understand if the user will pause briefly between the prefix and the other four figures.

"For instance," they said, "you might say CLifford 4 (pause) 1999." They also recommended that telephone users check stationery, business and personal calling cards, or any other material to be sure they show the correct number following the change.

Red Cross Swim Schedule Told

Children's swimming lessons by Mt. Diablo American Red Cross Chapter to be held at Acalanes High School were announced this week.

In addition, there will be three sessions for adults and life-saving classes. To be eligible a child must be 4 feet tall and have completed first grade.

For the Walnut Creek School District, classes will be held June 22 to July 3. Children in Orinda, Canyon, Moraga and the part of Pleasant Hill south of Boyd Road and East of Pleasant Hill Road can take instruction from July 13-24.

Lafayette school pupils can take lessons July 27 to August 7. The Acalanes district provides the pool and the Red Cross Chapter provides the instructor.

Enrollment cards will be available at schools at the end of this term. They must be presented on the first day of class.

Plans Complete for Junior Horse Show

Plans are near completion and late entries will be accepted up until tonight for the Ninth Annual Junior Horse Show, sponsored by the Contra Costa Horseman's Association on Sunday. For entry blanks and information phone Marie Doty, entry clerk, YEllowstone 4-9725.

The show will be held in the arena of the 105 year old historic Don Fernando Pacheco Adobe, located at 3119 Grant Street, Concord.

The grand entry will start at 12:30 p.m., with Dr. and Mrs. Tim D. Leon judging "best dressed juvenile cowboy," "best dressed juvenile cowgirl," "best matched pair," and "youngest rider."

Christian Science

That spiritualization of thought and action is necessary for real progress will be brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul and Body" at services Sunday at Churches of Christ, Scientist, at 42 Orinda Highway, Orinda, and 1347 Locust Street, Walnut Creek.

The following passage will be among those read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mortals must gravitate Godward, their affactions and aims grow spiritual — they must near the broader interpretations of being, and gain some proper sense of the infinite — in order that sin and mortality may be put off" (265:5).

From the Bible will be read the following counsel given by the Apostle Paul to the Corinthians: "Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God" (I Corinthians 2:12).

The Golden Text is from II Corinthians: "What agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God" (6:16).

Competing for the chance to enter the state contest at Culver City June 27 will be students from Acalanes, Las Lomas, Pleasant Hill and San Ramon Valley High Schools.

THE CALIFORNIA title holder will enter a national contest August 10-14 in Washington, D. C., where $3100 in scholarships will be awarded.

Tomorrow's contest will consist of a written examination and a skill test involving driving through prescribed exercises as parking, smooth stopping and others.

Six sub-committees have been organized under Chairman Jim Dana to carry out the program according to President Howard Koch.

"BY EMPHASIZING the rules of the road and the skills needed for safe driving, we intend to give local youths a chance to prove that some of America's best drivers are teen-agers," Koch said.

Bob Deleray, Ken Dailey and Bob Riegg will represent Las Lomas at the contest.

Concert Guild Plans Program

Plans are now being made by the recently-organized Contra Costa Concert Guild to bring a varied program to this county.

A proposed series for this fall includes the San Francisco Symphony orchestra, the San Francisco Ballet, the Straw Hat Review, an American jazz concert, dramatic productions and classic foreign films.

Series subscriptions will cost $7 for adults and $3 for children. Officers are Mrs. William A. Page, Antioch, president; A. V. Jespersen, Walnut Creek, vice president; Mrs. John Basset, Pittsburg, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Allen, Antioch, recording secretary, and Mrs. Frank Dragon, Antioch, treasurer.

Rett-White Ford Agency Formally Opens

With a pledge of personalized service, Rett-White Ford Sales will have its grand opening today at 1816 Main Street, Walnut Creek, formerly the site of Sammie Evans Ford.

President Rett Turner is assisted by Sales Manager Jack Welch, Service Manager John Muzzy, General Manager Ed Hertzig, Fleet Manager Kirby Hunt and Parts Manager Paul Rowland.

Carrying out the new agency's policy of offering the best customer dealing possible will be salesmen Roy Pasquini, Gene Pleau, Bob Jackson, Jim Richardson, Lee Winetrout, George Valente, Orville Berry and Al Baldini.

Turner comes to the agency from Cecil Whitebone Ford of San Francisco, where he was executive vice president. Whitebone is an owner of the new company. He has more than 20 years experinece in the automobile business.

Sales policy in the new organization will be governed by the belief that the public is "in the saddle" and a seller's market is the thing of the past, Turner said.

After sale service is also promised along with a high trade in, easy financing, and fast deliveries of new cars. Complete parts and service departments are included as well as a used car lot.

Local Citizens Named to Kuchel Support Group

United States Senator Thomas H. Kuchel has been notified by the Secretary of the Air Force that he may designate ten Californians to compete for entrance examinations for the new Air Force Academy.

This announcement was made by Senator Kuchel today, through Mrs. Betty Irwin of Orinda, co-chairman of the Contra Costa Committee for the re-election of the senator.

Mrs. Irwin said the senator has been advised that the first class of 300 cadets will be enrolled by next July, and that Senator Kuchel is urging that the permanent location of the new academy be in California.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Irwin said, the Walnut Creek Club for the re-election of Senator Kuchel has been enlarged by the joining of Harmon K. Howard, Edward C. Counter, Mrs. James C. McGeehon, Wayne Haas, Mrs. Charles A. Sweet and Van M. Williams, all of Walnut Creek; and William R. Cottle, Richard F. Cutler and C. F. Hendrick, all of Saranap.

Work Day Planned At Boy Scout Camp

Camp Hampton, overnight camping site of the Mt. Diablo Council, Boy Scouts of America, is having a face-lifting job tomorrow, announced Roy Bonney, Pleasant Hill, Explorer advisor.

The camp, located on the Bear Creek Road, north of Orinda Crossroads, has been the location of several Boy Scout Camporees and outings in the past years.

"With the increased load at the camp, many projects are slated for the work parties. Projects include fire trails, refencing, camp site development and fireplace building. All Scouts, Explorers and adult Scouters are welcome to the spring work parties," said Bonney.

"The day is called 'Brick-per-Boy' day," explained Bonney. "The idea is to get as many bricks for the camp site fireplaces as possible. Every boy is encouraged to bring a fire brick and one red one for the camp project."

Bonney announced that boys and adults are going to meet at the camp at 8 a. m. and finish their projects at 4 in the afternoon.

Carol Teuscher Wins Art Award

Carol Teuscher, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Teuscher of La Canada, Lafayette, was one of 40 Northern California High School art students to win awards in the 1954 National High School Art Exhibition at Carnegie Institute of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

An Acalanes High School student, Carold was awarded $25 for her fabric design entered in the general design division. She was previously honored in local competition sponsored by the Emporium in March.

Girl Scouts Join United Crusade

The Executive Council of the Central Contra Costa County United Crusade held its first meeting at the Coast Counties Gas and Electric Building in Walnut Creek Monday.

It was announced that the Board of Directors of the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scout Council has voted to join the movement.

ACCORDING TO E. C. "TED" Counter, chairman of the finance committee, this decision was made after much discussion and deliberation by the two and Counter is enlisting the full cooperation of all Girl Scout parents.

The Executive Council meeting was under the direction of Chairman Cliff Hayden. It is composed of the Executive Committee Advisory Boards of Martinez, Concord and Diablo Valley.

The first meeting of the budget committee of the Diablo Valley Advisory Board of the United Fund Drive was held May 10 at the Pleasant Hill Recreation building on Oak Park Boulevard.

THOSE PRESENT WERE J. P. Gustafson, chairman, Charles Bowers, Everet Gale, P. H. Recreation Department, E. C. "Ted" Counter and H. B. Hague, representing the Diablo Valley Area Girl Scouts, Duncan Knudsen and Fitch Robertson, the Meridian District Boy Scouts, Charles Gable and John Price of the YMCA; Mrs. Agnes Boyle, representing the Herrick Clinic.

Purpose of this meeting was to study the methods of participation and recommendation as to entry into the local Crusade.

Redevelopment of Richmond Topic

Contra Costa County Contractors are to receive first hand information regarding the redevelopment of Richmond at their regular monthly general membership dinner meeting to be held at 7 p.m. Thursday at the Orinda Willows, it was announced today by Kermit L. Lincoln, Lafayette, president.

Basil Walker, executive director of the Richmond Redevelopment Agency, will advise members on the "Planned Redevelopment of Richmond" and the part that private enterprise and the contractors must play to assure the overall success of the program, Lincoln said.

Need a Ride To the Polls?

Persons who wish to vote on the Acalanes High School District tax limit proposal may secure transportation to the polls if it is needed by phoning YE 4-7374, Walnut Creek; Lafayette 3987, and Orinda 2045 any time today.

Arrangements are being made by the Parents Committee for the Tax Limit, John Laverty, co-chairman.

Illegal Pin Balls Crushed by 'Dozer

A county owned bulldozer Tuesday ended the illegal careers of four multiple play pinball machines, seized by the Sheriff's Department in raids January 18.

Sheriff James N. Long, Inspector Ray Stoffels and Chief Lester J. Bower of the Criminal Identification Bureau stood by as the large machine crushed the devices.

They were taken with seven others, later discovered to be legal, in raids in Lafayette, Brentwood and Danville.

The machines were taken from Danville, the Wild Idol Tavern at Byron and the Bon Gusto Tavern at Bordon Junction and found to be illegal by District Attorney Francis Collins. No action was taken against owners.

Second Suit Filed In Fatal Crash

A second suit, asking $123,750 for three plaintiffs, has been filed in Superior Court as an aftermath of a fatal auto-truck accident in Walnut Creek February 18.

Earlimart truck driver B. F. Pounds was also named defendant in a damage suit previously filed by Malcolm W. Loveland of Orinda, driver of the car.

Plaintiffs in the second suit are Dorothy L. Marshall, widow of William C. Marshall of Orinda, who was killed in the accident; Roy Elke of Lafayette and William Wakeman of Lafayette, both injured in the crash.

Mrs. Marshall asks $96,250; Elke seeks $20,000, and Wakeman is suing for $7500. The accident occurred when Pound's truck swerved into the wrong lane to avoid hitting a car in front of it and collided with Loveland's car.

Model Railroad on Display!

"Train Number One departing on time. All abo-o-o-ard!" The first regular train (miniature size) will make a public departure from the City of Pottersville at 7 p.m. Friday, June 4, when the Diablo Valley Lines commences operations with its first public exhibition.

The model railroad layout, a joint venture of the 20-plus members of the Walnut Creek Model Railroad Society, has completed its construction work which started 2½ years ago to the point where the public may look in and see the realistic pike which takes up a 20 foot by 40 foot space in th ecenter of the club's own building in Walnut Creek near the Southern Pacific station, and which is reached by going out Railroad Avenue from Main Street then turning to the right just before the railroad crossing (the real one, not model).

Public admission will be permitted starting Friday evening from 7 to 10, and on Saturday and Sunday from 2 to 10 p.m. Southern Pacific officials have been invited to be there when the first switch is thrown and also Walnut Creek City and Contra Costa County officials.

General admission will be 25 cents.

Cancer Drive Now Up to 90 Per Cent Of Total, Report

California's response to the 1954 fund raising appeal of the American Cancer Society is running 23 percent ahead of this time a year ago, it was announced today by Irving Magill, campaign chairman of the Contra Costa County Branch.

Magill said that Contra Costa County contributions received to date have reached 90 percent of the local quota.

Magill has been advised by H. L. Hoffman of Los Angeles, state chairman of this year's campaign, that the California Division is the first in the nation to pass the $1,000,000 mark in contributions to the 1954 Cancer Crusade.

California is presently leading the entire nation in the total amount of funds received by any one Division. Statewide contributions to date total more than $1,200,000 — in excess of 80 perecent of the Society's 1954 goal of $1,442,200.

He joined with Hoffman in a statement thanking the local residents for their generous response to this year's appeal. The two campaign leaders pointed out, however, that volunteer workers must increase their efforts during the next two weeks to bring the campaign to an early close.

Magill appealed to local residents to send in their contributions to the American Cancer Society at the earliest opportunity, if they have not already done so. Contributions should be addressed to the Contra Costa County Branch, P.O. 69, Walnut Creek.

Librarians Will Meet in Orinda On Wednesday

Orinda has been selected for the annual meeting of Contra Costa County branch librarians on Wednesday, 10 a.m., in Fellowship Hall of Orinda Community Church. The meeting will conclude with a luncheon at Orinda Country Club.

"In order to gain a better perspective of the library's role in the community now and in the future," Mrs. Bertha B. Hellum, county librarian, states that she has invited three guest speakers who will discuss different aspects of development in Contra Costa County.

HARRY L. MORRISON Jr., executive director of the County Taxpayers Association, will discuss the part this organiaztion plays in the development of county affairs.

Mrs. Iona Booth, executive director of the County Development Association, will talk on population growth and trends toward future development.

Mrs. Hellum hopes to have a county supervisor explain the place of the County Planning Commission in county development.

180 Children to Present Ballet, Dance Festival

Somewhere between 150 and 180 children "depending on measles and chicken pox" will gather at Acalanes High School this evening at 8 to present a dance recital for their parents and friends.

The children are the students of Mrs. Winifred Gilmore in Orinda and Miss Ruth Hutchinson in Walnut Creek, and will join forces in the first joint recital of this kind in the area.

General theme of the performance will be "The World Around Us" and specific acts will revolve around a child's impression of things remembered from childhood days, according to Miss Hutchinson.

THERE WILL BE scenes about the seasons, in which Jack Frost and skaters mix, all in the measures of classical ballet, and spring will appear with flowers and sunshine.

Of course, there will not only be classical ballet, as performed by the younger students, but a more typical and sophisticated modern dance, "Serenade to a Lemonade" by David Rose will be performed by three Orinda girls, all high school seniors. Betsy Selby, Linda Baker and Linda Pyle will dance the number, which centers around a group doing entertaining for a fashion show.

THE FINALE BALLET will be a more classical presentation, a sort of children's idea of Swan Lake, according to Mrs. Gilmore. It will be done to a Fairyland theme built around preparing Mother Earth for spring, and will be full of fairies, flowers and dew drops.

Children from all over the area will be participating, including Pleasant Hill and Danville, and everybody will have a chance to perform. The spotlight will not be on any individuals or "star" performers, according to the teachers, but the idea is merely to give the youngsters a chance to see the work of others, and to work with others.

Among thse participating will be Toni Czaja, Christy Howard, Phylliss Garvutt, from Walnut Creek; Kathy Floyd and Mary Lou Schneider of Lafayette and Joyce Sherborne of Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Ruth Freeman of Alamo and Mrs. Helen Garneau of Lafayette will provide the accompaniment.

POLITICS, YET!

Election time is here again and many of our students are competing against one another for offices. Today the primary election was held and each and every member of the student body had an opportunity to vote for the person he believes to be best qualified.

Running for the office of president were John Bohn, John Conley and Bill Rupley. Vice Presidency will be occupied by Don Ong or Bob Roberts. Secretary's chair will be filled by Sally Pedder or Bev Wall.

The office of all-important social secretary will be taken by Donalee Fey or Rita Wood. Sue Lamberth and Marcia Miilu are competing for treasurer and the yell leader will be either Sue Adair, Sally Freedman, Donna Laney, Nancy McCrum or July Olson.

We regret to inform you that because of the fact this column was being printed at the time of the election, results will have to be revealed in the next issue. Good luck all! . . .

WEDNESDAY we are looking forward to a great big super-collosal all county assembly in which six high schools from all over Contra Costa County, and even our own school, will participate.

COMBINED EFFORT

Diablo, Pittsburg, San Ramon, Las Lomas and Pleasant Hill students will each do five minute skits. There will also be short speeches given by three high school exchange students from France, Belgium and Sweden, who have been attending George Washington High School in San Francisco.

LAST FRIDAY was the annual production of Musance. Efforts of the concert band, mixed chorus and Modern Dance Group all combined to make this a great success. Among the numbers played by our band was a Spanish March "Amparioto Roca." This was conducted by the Student director, Gary Claussenius.

Big, big news! Only 14 more days to slave in the classrooms, then VACATION. And with this happy note we leave you.

Diablo Valley Camp Fire Girls Council Formed

The Walnut Creek - Lafayette Leaders Association May 5 at Acalanes High School approved the executive committee for the Diablo Valley Camp Fire Girls Council.

The new council proposes to correlate activities in Lafayette, Walnut Creek and adjacent areas.

On the executive committee are Dick Rockwell, president; Louis Capra, vice president; Arthur Rinne, treasurer, and Lorna Barber, secretary. The new council will be incorporated as a non-profit organization.

Filing on behalf of the corporation are local Camp Fire Girl Leaders from this area and include Mrs. Evlyn Wilkes, Mrs. Mryretta Capra, Mrs. Marie Ballanger, and Mrs. Evelyn Lambert.

Principal speaker at the meeting was Miss Carolyn Lawson, field director for Oakland Camp Fire Girls.

United World Federalists to Seek Members

In conjunction with its membership drive this month, the Diablo Chapter of the United World Federalists has scheduled a series of home meetings and discussion groups to acquaint the public with the aims of the organization.

Prominent speakers have been enlisted to address the groups and explain how the United World Federalists propose to achieve and maintain world peace.

The first of these meetings was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leslie, 2680 Newell Avenue, Walnut Creek last week. Harold Amor Galloway of Marin County, was guest speaker.

Last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris of 1348 Geary Road, Walnut Creek, were hosts to a group hearing Allan M. Chambliss, a civil engineer now with the Standard Oil Company of California and Northern California vice-president of the United World Federalists.

Organ Recital Open to Public

To allow music lovers of the Bay Area to hear in program the first organ of its type to be installed on the Pacific Coast, St. Stephen's Episcopal Church has opened to the public the recital to be given by Richard Purvis next Friday, 8 p.m., at the new building on Via Las Cruces in the Charles Hill section of Orinda.

Beginning his career as a child protegy, Purvis made his musical debut at the age of 13 in San Francisco's Exposition Auditorium. He is the only organist ever to be awarded the coveted Cyrus H. K. Curtis memorial scholarship, and, following his training at the Curtis Institute, he was further granted a scholarship for European study.

Rated by music critics as one of the top 10 organists in the entire nation, Purvis is at present regular organist at Grace Cathedral in San Francisco.

Selections to be offered will be chosen by Purvis to be especially effective on the baroque-toned instrument.

The improved "Artiste" organ, produced by M. P. Moller of Hagerstown, Md., has six ranks of pipes, Bourdon, Principal, Salicional, Voix Celeste, Nazard and Trumpet, the last replacing the Krumhorn.

Dentists Honored

Two Orinda dentists have been honored this year in very similar ways.

Dr. Don Parle White is now president of the University of California Alumni from the School of Dentistry and Dr. C. Walter Cole is president of the College of Physicians and Surgeons in San Francisco, School of Dentistry.

Make going to LOS ANGELES the best part of your trip

The streamlined Daylight's the easy, carefree way to go south. While you relax in your foam-rubber reserved seat, the West's best scenery glides by, including 113 miles of Pacific surf. Your seat reclines, too, if you wish. Picture windows are five feet wide.

Eating on the Daylight is half the fun of traveling. Food is delicious and reasonably priced. Both Coffee Shops are open during the entire trip for complete meals and snacks. Tavern Car, too, is open throughout the trip to serve you refreshments.

The Coast Daylight leaves San Francisco (Third & Townsend) at 8:15 a.m., arrives Glendale 5:42 p.m., Los Angeles 6 p.m. Fully air-conditioned, of course.

Through cars from East Bay. Two streamlined Chair Cars leave Oakland (1st & Broadway) 7:38 a.m., Fruitvale 7:48 a.m. and are cut into Coast Daylight at San Jose. You go right through to Los Angeles in the same car.

Remember that low fare—only $9.50 one way, $17.30 roundtrip. Children under five $1 one way, $2 roundtrip; five through eleven $5.25 one way, $9.65 roundtrip. (All fares plus tax.) Parlor Car and Parlor-Observation Car accommodations at higher fare.

Remember, too—all Western Scenery is on the ground. You see it best from streamliners like the Daylight.

Also try the Starlight by night

About our happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

ARE YOU ROMANTIC ABOUT ORINDA? Do you lift your eyes from the Spring weed pulling operations and gaze at the hills which are wearing a green coat with oak trees in the pockets and wonder what it might have looked like in — say — 1880?

As you follow the steam rollers and other ponderous representatives of East Bay "Mud," on Miner Road do you think how it might have gotten its name? Do you pause for reflection on how the pastoral but presently inadequate little Santa Maria Church happened to be there?

In order to get the right answers we went straight to "the horse's mouth" (to quote the gentleman himself), Mr. Edward I. deLaveaga, who graciously gave us the following interesting background.

In 1888 when Mr. de Laveaga was a little boy his father Miguel de Laveaga and mother Marie LeBreton de Laveaga of San Francisco bought 1050 acres with the idea of having a spot for a summer home for weekends and vacations. Being a man of vision he said that "when it all becomes too valuable to keep he would give away the land and sell the climate."

Mrs. de Laveaga, with the feminine point of view, thought it would be a good place to wear out their San Francisco clothes.

It's still a rough trip, and dangerous!

It took two hours and 15 minutes from Oakland over the old Fish Ranch road by horse drawn surrey — when the weather was good. In the winter the wash-outs were so frequent that at times the road was passable only by saddle horse. (wonder how the San Francisco clothes stood up under that treatment). The early railroad, The California Nevada, started at Emeryville and toured up the valley now occupied by the San Pablo dam, and arrived in due course at Bryant Station which is now the Crossroads.

There were a few neighbors. General Theodore Wagner lived a mile away on Bear Creek Road and his specialty was the annual Fourth of July Celebration — firecrackers to delight the children and cold beer for the grownups.

J. O. Miner, for whom the road was named was a land owner in the Sleepy Hollow area and lived where the Joseph Long home is now situated.

William Minto lived near the present Filter Plant at Bear Creek junction and the old home is still there. The summer home of Mayor Bryant of San Francisco was in the Crossroads area — hence the name Bryant Station.

In the wooded slope below La Noria there are the remains of a stone patio, barbecue and garden area — possibly the summer playgrounds of the Posey family (of Alameda Posey Tube fame).

The picturesque Catholic Church was built in 1892 by Mr. de Laveaga's mother to serve the needs of her family, particularly those members who had been educated in Germany without benefit of adequate religious instruction. It has occupied a sentimental spot in the hearts of all Orindans — even golfers — particularly a thoroughly Presbyterian gentleman by the name of McGregor who requested of Mr. de Laveaga and his sister that he be permitted to contribute toward the painting and redecorating because it meant so much to him to see the Church from the 11th green.

Ducks, fish and kids just love it

Cascade Lake, where the children, during the fishing season, and the ducks, just any old season, cavort with such obvious glee, was the site chosen by Mr. de Laveaga for the protection of the Orinda water supply by "impounding the water he had seen running in torrents during the winter". A dam was constructed and it was the intent originally to filter and treat the water for drinking purposes, but because of drainage into the lake that was impractical so it was turned over to the country club for use on the course.

The golf course itself was, to a substantial extent, a contribution by Mr. de Laveaga to the Country Club for the betterment of Orinda, and the fulfillment of his dream.

Of course there was much more, but this gives you an idea of how it all started. Thank you Mr. de Laveaga for such an interesting interview for the edification of our new Orindans and the benefit of this Children's Hospital column.

INTERESTING ARTICLE in the May 11 Wall Street Journal mentioning Frank Brandstetter, ex-country club manager who is now president of the Continental Restaurant Corporation, a subsidiary of Transcontinental Bus Systems. Always a handy artist with food he is quoted as saying, "From the $100,000 restaurant and kitchen at the Dallas station meals can be had at 30 cents a hamburger sandwich, a 45 cent special luncheon or a $3 steak. From the same kitchens will come precooked frozen meals for other T.B.S. Terminal restaurants within a 400 mile radius. This is expected to cut costs and improve quality through better control of supplies." Now that, Mr. Brandstetter, is the housewife's dream and we'll bet he thinks he thought of it himself.

Have you tried a high-powered rifle?

This week's report on the gopher situation. Three down and 400 to go. We certainly fixed one little gopher in a fashion he least expected — he was the forward child — sent out to reconnoitre for the clan — overconfident he started scratching on a window where Father was peacefully reading the evening paper.

After Father recovered from his amazement at the temerity of the toothy one, he opened the window, folded up the paper, and conked Gophy on the noggin, whereupon the furry animal rolled over with teeth and toes turned up and gasped his last. Mr. Harvey Lyon really has the answer to the situation. His problem was proportionately much greater than ours so he went to the University of California for help and they recommended putting a teaspoon of "Gopher Scent" in the tunnnel, but be sure to leave the tunnel open because the gopher doesn't like light so he surfaces — planning to cover the hole with dirt — nibbles bait on way — never gets around to covering up hole — instead retires down tunnel and goes to his reward.

Very cute story about the Lyons. In Florence for a Warehouseman's Meeting a couple of years ago they were dining with two feminine Florentines who didn't speak English. Mrs. Lyons was referring to her husband as Harvey and the Italian ladies immediately mentioned Harvey the rabbit.

Subsequently (about two years subsequently) a two day old fawn was found by the Lyons in their garden. The wee beastie was promptly hustled into the house and then delivered to Fairyland where it is now holding forth. The Park Department requested permission to name the fawn Harvey and Mr. Lyons' reply was "Yes — I would rather be called Harvey Deer than Harvey Rabbit."

Another good animal story . . . surprise!

Inasmuch as the last few items are about men and their involvements with animals here is one about Dr. Richard Dawson whose horse Lady is one of the paid up members of the local Ranger Riding Group. Dr. Dawson has been riding Lady regularly, little suspecting the imminent arrival of a "little stranger." Stranger indeed — so completely unexpected that when Janice Parnham and Karen Rasmussen called him to say that Lady had a little colt his rejoinder was "I'll be right over with a box of Kleenex." Baby's name "Surprise."

And now about a man with a horn — one Mario Guarneri who really brought down the house at the Orinda Grammar School auditorium the evening of the 6th, 7th and 8th grade concert. The young ladies sang sweetly, the orchestra tootled everything from Carmen to the Old Grey Mare and then Mario, age 12, planted his two feet firmly in the stage and rendered the niftiest interpretation of St. Louis Blues heard hereabouts.

Last minute news flash — don't know how to enter it in this gentleman's column because it is about a couple of girls — oh, yes — Daddy Peter Ley — and Mother Jeanne St. Hill Ley — and Babykins — Sharon Jeanne Ley weighing 8 pounds and 5 ounces and

That is all.

Mothers Club Installs at Final Meet

New officers who will assume their duties July 1 were installed Tuesday afternoon at the school year's final meeting of the Orinda Mothers Club at Orinda School auditorium.

With Mrs. Marvin Bonds, past president and executive board adviser, conducting the ceremony, the following were installed:

President, Mrs. Coleman Huntley, who will succeed Mrs. Miles B. Sutliffe; vice-president, Mrs. Vernon Axelson; recording secretary, Mrs. James Seaman; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Charles Lohse; treasurer, Mrs. George Drysdale.

A HIGHLIGHT of the meeting was the reading by Eleanor Silverman of portions of Jessamyn Wests' new book, "Cress Delahanty." The book is a group of stories about the problems of a teen-ager.

NEED FOR the proposed increase to $1.75 in the Acalanes High School District tax limit, to be decided by the voters today, was explained by Principal Stanley Walgren of Acalanes High School.

Plans were discussed for Mothers Club refreshment booth at tomorrow's Orinda Rotary Club Field Day for school children and for the Mothers Club picnic for the Orinda School graduating class at Orinda Park Pool June 8.

The Book Award was won again by Mrs. Audrey Dechterman's third grade class at Sleepy Hollow School for best attendance of mothers at the Tuesday gathering. Along with the book went repossession, until the end of the school term, of a bowl of goldfish.

ASKED LATER about what will happen to the goldfish during summer vacation, Mrs. Sutliffe said:

"It was my idea to allow each winning class to have the fish for a month. So I guess my boys will have to take care of the bowl of goldfish this summer."

Mrs. Sutliffe's sons are students at Sleepy Hollow School—Bill, 6, is in first grade, and Dick, 9, is in fourth grade.

Hostesses for the year's final meeting were the second grade mothers of the Del Rey and Sleepy Hollow Schools, under direction of Mesdames Arthur Boehm, Frank Brush, R. B. Kitzmiller, Sheldon Allen and D. A. Texdahl.

New Folk Dance Group Formed

A newly formed folk and square dancing group known as the Orindamigos is now meeting semi-monthly at the home of Mrs. Estelle Bacon on Miner Road.

The first election of the group placed Jack Saunders as president, Karl Schevill, vice president; Le Martin Spittler, treasurer, and Clint Easterbrook, secretary.

Membership is comprised of Messrs. and Mesdames Abbott, Moylan, Maddox, Meyer, Morriss, Saputo, W. V. Saunders, Bumgarner, Paterson, Jones, with Honorary memberships extended to Mrs. Bacon, Bob and Marie Ross. The organization is a nucleus of the class which met at the Orinda Community Church under the jurisdiction of the State Adult Education Program, which program was subsequently discontinued.

Plans are now being formulated for a party to be given in June which will formally end the Spring dancing season. According to Jack Saunders, the Orindamigos expect to play a prominent part in the folk and square dancing parties which have become so popular during the summer at the Orinda Park Pool.

The Fall term will begin the latter part of September. The group, under the capable instruction of Bob and Marie Ross, is now at the intermediate stage.

Juniors to Install New Officers

Newly elected officers of the Orinda Junior Woman's Club will be installed in an informal ceremony at 7 p.m. Monday. Miss Ann Jepsen, president of the Alameda District California Federation of Women's Clubs Junior Membership, will officiate as installing officer.

The ceremony, to be held at the home of Mrs. Howard J. Libby, will be followed by a buffet supper in the garden. Other guests are Mrs. M. E. Hopper, Alameda District C.F.W.C. Junior president elect, and Mrs. C. W. Hood, newly appointed associate adviser to the Orinda Junior Woman's Club. Mrs. Roy C. Young of Piedmont, senior adviser with Mrs. Hood, will also be present.

OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED are: President, Mrs. Vernon E. Louis; vice president, Mrs. Howard J. Libby; recording secretary, Mrs. Edmund F. Wilford; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Howard Gravelle; treasurer, Mrs. Anthony Yriberri; auditor, Mrs. L. M. Chapman; parliamentarian, Mrs. Walter E. Estes.

A surprise program in the form of a farcical-comedy is being planned by outgoing president Mrs. Walter E. Estes, and others.

THE SOCIAL COMMITTEE, under the chairmanship of Mrs. John J. McCaffery, is handling details of the supper. Other members of the social committee include Mesdames Beau Guinther, Vernon Louis, Thomas Howard, Paul Gregg, Richard Farmer, Norman Miller, L. M. Chapman, Pierce Hussey, Jack Smithers and Gerald Fitzgerald.

Guild Luncheon to Be Special Affair

The annual June luncheon for the benefit of the Women's Guild of Orinda Community Church will be held in the Social Hall and patio June 1 at 12:30 p.m. This is an event always looked forward to by Guild members and their Orinda friends with considerable anticipation.

The luncheon will be delicious and the program promises to be one of the best ever given for it will feature a talk by Fera Weber Shearen titled "San Francisco Yesteryear" and will be illustrated by her own beautiful water colors of old San Francisco homes. History and romance will be cleverly mingled.

Tickets at $2 per person are now on sale by Guild members. Child care will be 50 cents.

all Orinda numbers change

New numbers include the prefix

CLifford 4 or CLifford 6

For good dial service...

Starting May 23, to make a local call dial the first two letters and numeral of the prefix (CL 4 or CL6) then dial the four other figures in the number.

Throw away your old telephone directory. On and after May 23 numbers in it will be wrong. It will be impossible to complete calls to the old numbers.

Start using your new directory on May 23. Before dialing, look up ALL Orinda numbers in the new directory. Correct your personal number lists, too. That's a real time saver!

Remember! Starting May 23, Lafayette telephones will also have new numbers with the prefix ATlantic 3 or ATlantic 4.

Beginning then you can dial Lafayette and Moraga just like a local call.

Dialing methods will change for extended service calls to East Bay Zone numbers. For these calls, starting May 23 please dial "99" then the number.

Garden Checklist Gives 4 Pointers

By The California Association of Nurserymen

Four timely bits of advice are given in this week's Garden Checklist. They are:

1. Remove all withered flowers and seed pods from rhododendron plants. Allowing rhododendrons to set seed reduces their vigor.

2. Carefully pick up and burn all old camellia flowers lying on the ground under the plants. These withered flowers may harbor a serious camellia disease, which causes buds to drop prematurely. The disease lives from year to year in these dead flowers.

3. Fertilize rhododendrons, azaleas and camellias now with a good acid fertilizer or fish emulsion.

4. For healthy roses, adopt a regular spray program. Your nurseryman will advise the best material to use.

It's Time to Step Up Control of Insects

During May general all-purpose spraying should be continued for aphis, mealybugs, thrips, scale and mildew. But in May, additional insects will become troublesome, and it is also a good time to spray your lawn for weeds and crabgrass.

There is more damage from the chewing insects ,such as beetles, caterpillars and cutworms, once the weather warms up in earnest. Chewed leaves and, in the case of grasshoppers, defoliation and chewed bark, are trademarks left by the chewing insects.

These pests can be controlled through the use of sprays containing rotenone, lindane, DDT, malathion or arsenicals. The better insecticides are blended with an emulsified oil base that is soluble in water.

Please write us news about your family, friends, clubs and interesting events. If you see something important, call at once.

Gardeners to Hear Landscape Architect

The Mount Diablo Men's Garden Club will meet Monday, a week earlier than usual because of Memorial Day, at El Monte Drive In, Clayton Road, Concord.

Speaker will be Theodore Osmunson, landscape architect of Oakland, who won first prize for his patio garden display at the Spring Garden Show.

His subject will be a "Guide to the Garden Beautiful" with colored slides.

Summer Annuals Make That Dream Come True Easily

A colorful garden that will afford armfuls of bright flowers for bouquets is the dream of nearly every gardener.

And, happily enough, it is one dream that can be accomplished relatively easily. Right now you can make selections at your nursery from a wide variety of fast growing annuals that will provide masses of blooms in a few short weeks. Specially nurtured, most of these will be about two or three inches high when you get them.

To have a really spectacular summer garden, the California Association of Nurserymen suggests that you get your nurseryman to show you annuals that can be obtained to bloom successively. That way you will have a garden that is "in bloom" all summer long.

In general, if given adequate water and reasonable protection from common garden pests, most summer annuals will perform beyond your expectations.

Bedding Plants Put Out Now Will Aid Garden

Now that your garden is showing vigorous, healthy growth, it is well to give some thought to what you should plant now to provide an abundance of color during the summer.

He recommends the planting of bedding plants of your choice, such as asters, marigolds, cornflowers, godetia, stock, larkspur, nasturtiums, pansies, petunias, snapdragons, zinnias or cosmos.

NO DOUBT you have favorites from among this group well suited to the particular area that you wish to plant. You can buy them in flats from your garden supply dealer, selecting the smaller plants rather than those which are too tall. You will find that they do better if they get this early, important growth in your soil rather than in the flats.

Of course, before you plant, it is necessary to prepare the soil well, being sure to cultivate and pulverize the soil so that the plants can speed their root growth unimpeded.

SHALLOW PLANTING is recommended to a depth of about 2 inches, and soil should be pressed down firmly around them.

Give these plants a good deep soaking rather than frequent light sprinklings, and you'll be delighted with the rapid growth.

Many Begonia Seedlings Can Now Be Obtained

Don't fret if you failed to set out begonia tubers. For you can purchase nearly all popular types of begonia seedlings in nurseries this month, to make your shady planting areas glow with dazzling color.

One of the most popular and fascinating plants that may be set out now for summer and fall flowers, tuberous begonias can be easily grown if given a shady spot and a little care in soil preparation.

MOST SOILS can be conditioned for optimum growth with fertilizers specially compunded for improved plant development and greater flower production. Your nurseryman will have these. Even a child can handle the watering, using a fine spray.

You don't have to be familiar with begonias to select desirable types. Chances are your favorites are represented in the hybrid variations that are available.

AMONG BEGONIA hybrids, the double camellia-flowered is the most popuiar, according to the California Association of Nurserymen. This group may be had in red, pink, orange, yellow and pure white — shades that will harmonize with most color schemes.

In recent years camellia-flowered blooms have been developed with wavy ruffled petals, making them almost resemble roses.

Alyssum Ideal For Rich Color

Because of the ability of alyssum to be transplanted in full bloom and give color from the day it is planted, it is of particular merit to use for summer plantings.

Due to its drought resistance the plant holds up well during heat waves and can even weather "two weeks' vacation" with little setback.

The recent introduction of dwarf violet alyssum to interspace with white Carpet of Snow has given us a wonderful edging combination.

These two types grow practically flat and virtually cover the ground with a mass of color during their blooming period and are quite compatible color wise.

By BARBARA BOROWIAK

It was easy to forget he was Richard P. Graves, candidate for governor. He had just rescued a tiny grey kitten who had tumbled into his swimming pool and as we sat and talked in the pleasant, spacious garden in the sunshine he stroked the small bedraggled animal. None of the telltale evidence of his recent hectic weeks of campaigning were on hand.

Gone, for a few moments at least, were the prepared notes, the dark blue business suits, the kleig lights and the sense of urgency which have necessarily accompanied him of late.

DICK GRAVES, NEIGHBOR, was seated in a patio chair across from me. He was dressed in grey flannel slacks and an open-necked blue sport shirt and his blue eyes were thoughtful and amused by turns as I threw questions at him.

"Who are you, Dick Graves," I wanted to know. "What makes up you as a person? What do you like to eat, who is your favorite comedian and how do you like your coffee? Do you like your shirts starched and what are your hobbies? Tell me about your family, your tastes, your recreation."

All this he did and more. It's steaks, Italian pot roast with macaroni (made by his wife), and wild duck that head his favorite foods list. And no sweets for dessert, please. He'll take cheese, apples and crackers instead. Breakfasts always begin with a multiple vitamin capsule, orange juice and coffee with one teaspoon of sugar. From there on it varies. Maybe cereal, maybe eggs, maybe pancakes. Lunches are always light. If he had his way dinner could almost always be steak and green salad. With roquefort cheese dressing.

DANNY KAYE IS HIS favorite comedian, followed by Groucho Marx on television. He did not succumb to this media, incidentally, in its beginning popularity and while he enjoys certain programs he feels that television has detracted from family group activities and from good music and reading—all of which are high on his list of desirables.

He hitched his chair around to get the sun out of his eyes and then lit a cigarette. He smokes Parliament, king size. He told us he worries about what he refers to as his narrowness in reading as he finds so much material in his field of administrative government which he tries to keep up with that he has let other reading fall by the wayside.

Dick Graves is an avid gardener and he took great pride in showing us the results of his labor in this field.

"Not puttering around with flowers necessarily," he told us. "But to construct a garden and do the work myself. You know, gravel paths, brick patios, retaining walls, working with a pick and shovel."

AND THIS HE HAS DONE. His long redwood fense, his bathhouse, his fire pit near the pool where they love to gather in the evenings after swimming. All these are his own creations. He looked wistful as he told us about his next project.

It's one his 10-year old daughter, Perrin, is awaiting most anxiously. It's to be a large doll house for which he had already purchased the materials and tools last winter before politics entered his life. And the supplies are still there in the garage waiting for the day when Dick may have a few moments to call his own again.

He loves to cook, just wishes he didn't have to clean up the mess afterwards. Pumpkin pies are his specialty. Next comes barbecuing which he does frequently on their portable grill.

He doesn't require the usual eight hours sleep to keep on his toes. Six or seven will do and if he can't get them all at once he is well versed in the fine art of cat-napping when necessary. Looking at his tanned face and the laugh lines around his eyes, I realized this ability has been fortunate during his present strenuous program of traveling and speechmaking.

The University of California has been a special interest to Dick Graves for many years. He was a student there for six years where a lecture of Dr. Samuel Mays first inspired him to make his career in public administration. He worked at the university in the Bureau of Public Administration for three years and later taught a graduate seminar in municipal administration.

HE LAUGHED HEARTILY as he recalled his undergraduate days in Berkeley where he had a part-time job at a men's clothing store. wanted to know. "What makes you

"It was called Hermans," he told us. "I got a 10 per cent commission on everyone I brought into the store who purchased clothing. I really went great guns at first as I dragged in everyone I knew who needed new clothes. But the best part of it was that just as I ran out of prospects and was wondering how I was going to make out from there on, my boss decided I was making too much money and put me on a salary. Saved my life!"

As we were laughing about this he got up to move the hose to a dry spot on the lawn. Just then a car drove up the driveway bringing Perrin home from Sunday school. Our laughter was renewed when we spotted the earrings she wore almost hidden beneath her long blond hair. There were large and round and on them was printed "Graves for Governor!"

WE TALKED ABOUT his family. His wife, Maya, his daughter, Perrin, and his son, Stephen, a Stanford student. Dick and Perrin especially enjoy swimming together while with Stephen conversation and theater outings provide enjoyment for both. Dick and Maya love to dance and one of Dick's ambitions is to learn to square dance.

He was an active participant in many sports as a boy and still enjoys a tennis game now and then. He prefers an evening of bridge and conversation with good friends to night-clubbing although an evening out with Maya to take in a dinner and show in San Francisco is both their ideas of a good time.

We discussed men in politics he admired and why. We found that while they varied widely as to type and public opinion, that they all fit into one pattern. They were men who conserved and preserved basic values but who could modify them to meet changing conditions. On this list he included Wilson, Lincoln, Roosevelt and LaGuardia. He also believes that the most important men and forces in society are those that tend to unify, to provide communications between opposing factions.

OUR NEXT QUESTION concerned memorable events in his life. He tilted back in his chair with his arms behind his head and a far-away look in his eyes as he answered. Seems that as a young boy in Hanford, Kings County, he worked his way through many jobs in the fruit industry.

"First I began by cutting up fruit to be used for drying. Next I became a picker. But the great day when I graduated to the job of driving the mule team and flat truck through the orchards to pick up the fruit signified that I had really become a man! It was a real thrill!"

At this point of our conversation Maya Graves came out of the house with a tray holding a steaming coffee pot, cups and cream and sugar. Dick rose to help her and then I turned to ask Maya what few words she would use to describe her husband.

"IT'S HIS AMAZING intensity and powers of concentration," she told us. "He gets so completely wound up in whatever he is doing, either physical or mental activity, that you can't break through to him sometimes. This can certainly be an asset. That is, unless he's reading or thinking about government or politics while I'm trying to talk to him and discover the hasn't heard a word I've said. And that does happen. Doesn't it, Dick?"

Her husband turned and looked at her thoughtfully.

"H'mm—what was that you said, dear?" he asked.

PATTER ON THE PARTY LINE

By PATRICIA JELTON

CAN YOU STAND THE CHANGE OF PACE from sports cars to Oriental object d'art to Planned Parenthood (begging your pardon, Father C.)? 'Because that's what will be necessary to stay in the local social whirl for three consecutive weeks.

Whirling counterclockwise and beginning with what's already been, may we state that the Concours D'Elegance at Diablo Country Club Sunday was a beautifully staged and successful event?

Mrs. Duncan Knudsen beaming over advance sales of 3000 ducats converted into dollars earmarked for Children's Hospital coffers. So enthused Mrs. D. over the sports cars, even trying to interest Mr. William Harold Oliver in merits of $15,000 pure white Rolls Royce equipped with pure gold ignition key. Mrs. Oliver very much missed from scene, down with virus.

MORE OBTAINABLE exhibits being eyed by our country squires as their dames made mental notes on acquirability of J. Magnin's summer gear admirably displayed by some 50 odd of the membership's loveliest ladies, localites among same the Mesdames Emerson Wiser, Max Biggs, William Seifert Jr., Calvin Hagstrom, Stephen Jensen, Ernest Kahl, James McDonald, John McFarland, Don Parle White, John Maggi, James McGeehon, Mel Nielsen and Jack Turman.

Sounds like a charming country cottage

Several of the guests stopping by the Ridgeway Woodburns' Danville place for stirrup cups and swimming on way home. The Woodburns acquired 22 acres of the old Love ranch, a beautifully landscaped site in full view of the Devil Mountain. The hundred year old barn with its stone foundation houses the three junior Woodburns' horses, and the century old house has been modernized by builder Ridge to incorporate all of the original charm with every modern convenience. Set off with sparkling 30 by 60 swimming pool!

AZELA'S HOBBY has always been decorating and her former home in Alameda was filled with charming antiques. Ridgeway designed the scale of the new rooms so that many complete decorative arrangements could be moved over intact. The charm is so infectuous that guests reluctantly tore selves away.

Plans for the art group's "Good Taste" party in high gear as you know they would be with Gert Reynolds helmsman. The committee finding the Gump's treasures fitting in beautifully to the Aylwin Proberts' colonial home in Reliez Valley.

Many local party goers making reservations for tomorrow evening when a champagne preview party will open the event. Call "Junior" Connolly, YE 5-5726, Mrs. Bill Picard, Orinda 5646, or Lois Gompertz, Vernon 7-4612.

There will be besides treasures competitive flower arrangements, Kurt Haase's fabulous gun collection, Oriental dancers, and handwoven creations modeled by the Mesdamse Robert Clough, William Ingraham, Edward Martin, Thomas Allinson, Thaddeus McCausland, Clark Lentz, Max Biggs, George Clifford, F. L. Cooper and the misses Margaret Probert and Nanette Sharkey.

All of the events will be repeated on Sunday from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

A gay group, but with a mission!

And now for Planned Parenthood. Few years ago, the group who have been working diligently in this endeavor for some time tossed a cocktail party at Fred and Maddy Borden's engineered by Pat (Mrs. Robert K.) Smith, and it was such a success that the country folk have been clamouring for another. And so under the arrangements of Margie (Mrs. Dr. John) Gompertz, another such affair is to take place next Friday evening in the spacious authentic Spanish villa of the Woodburn K. Lambs, Woody, of course, having been active in the movement since inception locally.

Later in the evening the group will troup down to Orinda Country Club where a buffet supper will await them, and finish off the evening with informal dance and chat. If you're interested call Margie, Orinda 2803, for a reservation. The Plan has no relationship to the Five Year Plan or the Morris Plan, but if you don't know anything about it, don't worry, you can always talk about the weather.

NORINNE CRANSTON, EVIE LAMB, Carol Anderson, Virginia Baker and Pat Smith to be passing hors d'oeuvres, with husbands Vic, Dr. Woody, Dr. Charles and Bob assisting with potables, and Vic and Bob entertaining on the piano. Promises to be a fun evening.

Fashions, with nothing but the best, yet

Final Saks Fifth Avenue garbed list of local lovelies to trod the boards for Orinda Branch's projected dinner dancing party at El Nido on the evening of June 2, the Mesdames Robert Goodale, Andrew Robertson, William Cronk, Wallace Greenlaw, Stewart Dinwiddie, Fred von Guenthner, Jack Turman, Richard Hofmann, Donald Norman, Fred Borden (club prexy), Charles Hudson, Willard Miller, Peter Hurst, Pierce Milton, Don Parle White, William Seifert Jr., Stephen Jensen, Stanley Dollar, Victor Bergeron and Willard (Midge) Hayes.

THE MESDAMES RAMSAY UNDERWOOD and Ed Doughery have some gimmick to pull out of their sleeves or of something for additional merriment, and Saks is sending over professional models with breathtaking bikinis, not that our local ladies couldn't display them to satisfaction, but because of lack of clearance from their respective masters.

There are a few reservations left — call Kay Beckett, Orinda 2961.

Always kind of tickled to see our rustic garden grubbers show up at a town function eye-catching in chicness as happened last week at Aladdin Chapter of Children's Home luncheon and fashion show at the Claremont where we glimpsed the Mesdames John Athanson, Bob Pedder, William McGuire, Griff Squire, J. Wayland Barnette, Morris Browning, G. C. Coffee, Arthur Stiefvater, Gil Meyers, "among others."

Why not just call it 'pot-pourri'?

Too late to classify — (despite fiendish feminine fixation for order of subject matter, just can't seem to tie the following items together.)

Friday's Hill and Dale dancing party just about gayest yet. Committee finally arrived at device to insure consumption of divine boned stuffed squab — bolted door to Pine Room during feeding time.

Quel domage! Ted and Sally Lassagne have sold their lovely Happy Valley home but hope to maintain Lafayette apartment for part-time residency.

Ken and Marian Morrish finally off to conduct Chamber of Commerce tour of the islands after Marian's bout with virus. Big honorary welcome home doings arranged by Chamber for May 27.

LOCAL JUNIOR LEAGUE lasses assembled at luncheon at Orinda Country Club May 18 making placement plans under chairman "Doshie" Sleeper.

Missed from local scene Lulu and Harry Jackson, in islands with the Tate Coulthards.

Orinda's Ted Harrers having elegant vacation at El Mirador in Palm Springs.

Newcomers to Orinda the Edward Mannons (Marie Kohlhaas) who have purchased the E. K. Burkett home on Ranch Road, with eye to possibilities of pool and garden as proper environment for expected heir the end of May.

JUST RECEIVED INVITATION from former localite Dick Rheem, new commodore of the Transpacific Yacht Club, to join him in next year's sail boat race to Honolulu. Suggests as slogan — "55 if we're still alive."

Why, Dick, we're hardly more than kids.

Nora Catherine Finlay Wed

Nora Catherine Finlay of Walnut Creek became the bride of Robert Thornton Cook of Redwood City May 8 in the First Congregational Church of Berkeley with the Rev. Vere L. Loper officiating.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson Finlay of Warren Road, the bride was given in marriage by her father. Miss Nancy Finlay, her sister, was her only attendant.

NORA WORE a waltz-length wedding dress of imported Chantilly lace with a satin underskirt. Long sleeves were bound with narrow satin ribbon and lily of the valley secured a fingertip illusion veil.

She carried a white orchid bouquet and a white prayer book. Her sister wore a cocktail-length dress of flower blue taffeta with a fittde bodice.

Frank Wild Hearne of Loyalton was best man and Melvin Norman Harris Jr. of Walnut Creek and Wilfred W. Hallmeyer and John W. Ingram of Lafayette were ushers.

A RECEPTION and wedding dinner followed at the home of the bride's parents and the newlyweds are now honeymooning in Neskowin, Oregon.

They will be at home to their friends Monday on Russell Street in Berkeley. Robert is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Stanley Cook.

East Bay Unit of Overseas League In Annual Meet

The East Bay unit of Women's Overseas Service League held its annual meeting recently and elected Mrs. Kenneth Robinson as president, and Mrs. Austin Hinshaw, Concord, vice president. Other officers to serve for the coming year are Miss Iris Meader, treasurer; Miss Kay Ross, recording secretary; Miss Gladys Cline, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. E. J. McCleun, auditor.

Among members of the organization who plan to attend the national convention of the league, to be held in Portland the first week of July, are Mrs. Reuben H. Hunt, Lafayette; Mrs. Ashley M. Harris, Oakland, and Aileen Hagerty, Walnut Creek.

Recently elected officers will be installed at the June 1 meeting in th Oakland YWCA and after that session the unit will take a recess until September.

Heidi Names New Officers, Reviews Year's Activities

Installation of officers for the year was held by Heidi, the Diablo area chapter of Children's Home Society, May 11 at the regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Oscar R. Hayes of Danville, installation chairman, conducted a simple though lovely installation ceremony in which each new officer received a small gift wrapped in different colors denoting the qualities of the office.

A ribbon attached to each gift was then also tied to that of the new president.

A red rose corsage was also presented to the new president by Mrs. Alfred C. Phelps of Danville, retiring president.

OFFICERS INCLUDE Mrs. Fred G. Costello of Walnut Creek, president; Mrs. Robert H. Lockey of Lafayette, vice-president; Mrs. Louis W. Tacchela of Lafayette, recording secretary; Mrs. Ray P. Cornelison of Walnut Creek, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette of Lafayette, treasurer, and Mrs. Griffith A. Squire of Lafayette, parliamentarian.

Prior to the installation ceremony, Mrs. Phelps presided and called on officers and committee chairmen for the past year who presented brief reports of their work.

In addition to these reports, Mrs. John K. Chapman of Alamo, chairman of Heidi's recent successful rummage sale, read a report.

Mrs. William Ingram of Piedmont, a member of the council of East Bay chapters of the Children's Home Society, honored Heidi with a brief address in which she informed the chapter of the functions of the council.

Primarily the council serves to coordinate activities of the various chapters and acts as liaison body between chapters and the Children's Home Society. Mrs. Ingram invited all members to attend the council luncheon to be held Thursday at the Berkeley City Women's City.

MRS GRIFFITH A. SQUIRE, chairman of Heidi's 1954 annual fall party, Mistletoe Magic, to be held Wednesday, November 17, at Castlewood Country Club, revealed that Jobert Thane, widely-acclaimed Bay area designer of ladies. fashions, will present the fashion show.

Mrs. J. Wayland Barnette, ticket chairman, announced that tickets will not be available until the fall but suggested that members keep a list of names of guests desiring tickets to insure their availability to those first on the list.

Last year found many prospective guests disappointed several weeks in advance of the party because all tickets had been sold. Since a large number of guests may be accommodated at Castlewood Country Club, Heidi hopes to alleviate this situation somewhat by having a greater number of tickets available this year.

IMMEDIATELY PRECEDING the installation ceremony, Mrs. Phelps was presented with a lovely copper chafing dish as a gift from Heidi members in appreciation of her remarkable service during the past year as president.

Members voted to send a large check to the Chidren's Home Society to aid in the society's work of placing children available for adoption. The money represents proceeds from several of Heidi's events.

Mrs. Phelps announced that Heidi will enter a display in the Outdoor Art Shows, Inc., sponsored exhibit, "Good Taste Costs No More," presented by Gump's to be at the Probert home, Grayson and Reliez Valley Roads, tomorrow and Sunday.

The display will be created by Mrs. Phelps and Mrs. Theodore H. Lassange of Lafayette.

Hostesses included Mrs. Fred G. Costello, Mrs. D. Russell Dyer and Mrs. William McGuire of Walnut Creek.

Art, Fashions at 'Good Taste' Show

Special entertainment at the "Good Taste Costs No More" event to be presented at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aylwin Probert, Reliez Valley and Grayson Roads near Lafayette, by Outdoor Art Shows, Inc. Sunday from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. will center in the gardens around the pool.

Here will be found the lanai setting and casual table settings. Also, rare antique sculpture of the Ming Dynasty will be seen here.

AT 3:30 P.M. the nationally famous Walnut Creek Lions Club quartet will begin an hour-long show that will include the fashion show and Oriental dancers.

Fashions to be shown are original Desert Clothes from Scottsdale, Arizona, and unusual handwoven costumes. The handwoven clothes will include separate skirts and stoles and several complete costumes.

ORIENTAL DANCERS will perform beside the pool following the fashion show.

Reflections in the pool of both the Oriental dancers and the fashion show will be further enhanced by an unusual floating decor.

Earlier in the afternoon, Madam Chiura Obata will lecture and demonstrate how Good Taste Costs No More in Floral Arrangements. This is at 1:30 p.m.

Carol Green Wilson will speak at 2:45 p.m. on the meaning of art treasures and how to acquire them.

PERDOMINANTLY ORIENTAL, the display of art treasures will include many of Gump's finest pieces — the Henry Raeburn masterpiece; the peony Kakemono by the famous Japanese painter Bunto; Oriental screens; Tibetan lacquer figures; porcelains; bronzes from Cambodia and Thailand; jade in all its many colors: cealdon, spinach and emerald green, black white and brown; contemporary pieces from all over the worl demphasizing the universality of good design; Steuben glass; and Japanese lacquer ware.

Of exceptional interest will be a Men's Treasures exhibit. Kurt O. Haase of Lafayette will show a gun collection of over 100 pieces including frontier rifles, Colt revolvers, big-game guns and a display of the steps followed in gun production.

Participants in a floral arrangement competition will be charity organizations of the Diablo Valley. Awards of $10 each in three classifications will be made by popular vote. Floral arrangements will be seen in the living room of the Probert home.

SPECIAL AWARDS will be a portrait in oil by Jonathna Batchelor and a pastel portrait by Royden Martin. Work of the two painters may be seen locally along with posters detailing the event.

Tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. a preview party will open the event. Carl Ostertag will give an illustrated lecture on the theme of the event at 8:15 p.m. The Walnut Creek Lions Club quartet, the fashion show and Oriental dancers will entertain from 9 to 10 p.m.

Refreshments of champagne punch and hors d'oeuvres will be served.

Tickets will be available at the door both days.

Larks Elect New Officers

The Lafayette Larks, unit of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, held their final meeting of the spring season at the home of Mrs. Donlad Fibush on Springhill Road May 13.

All inactive and associate members were invited and a large enthusiastic number gathered around the beautiful Springhill Community Pool adjacent to the Fibush home.

Retiring President Mrs. James Shierry conducted a short business meeting, during which time the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. I. P. Capra; vice president, Mrs. Don Fibush; secretary, Mrs. L. Staney; treasurer, Mrs. K. Welch. Membership chairman will be Mrs. M. Vittaly; volunteer chairman, Mrs. R. Thompson; publicity chairman, Mrs. C. J. Herman and Directors, Mrs. Shierry, Mrs. I. Barnum and Mrs. M. Boevers.

Mrs. Fibush, retiring membership chairman, introduced the following new members: Mesdames William Simpson, Phillip Springman and Grant Powell. Mrs. Thompson, in charge of volunteer workers, enlisted aides for the Therapy Center, and Mrs. Barnum, rummage sale chairman, discussed the coming October sale.

She urged the group to collect salable articles all summer as the $900 profit shown from the rummage sale of last September must be increased.

Mrs. Charles Benoy, new center director, presented a short talk and stressed the importance of the Sheltered Workshop where increasing numbers of handicapped men are trained for and returned to self-supporting employment.

After adjournment a delicious buffet luncheon was served by Mrs. W. Herrmann and her committee, Mrs. S. Sibley and Mrs. R. Hoedel.

Many members enjoyed a swim while other members discussed the projects planned for the coming year.

Jeanne Shelley Engaged, June Wedding Planned

Announcement of the engagement of Jeanne Shelley to William Sanford or Oroville was made recently at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Shelley, 75 Pleasant Hill Road.

The occasion was the spring formal dance for members of Plymouth House, the Congregational Student Center at the University of California.

A sophomore at the University of California, Jeanne is majoring in English. She is vice-president of Plymouth House and state chairman of Plymouth Fellowship of Congregational Churches.

A graduate of Mt. Diablo High School, she is also a past worthy advisor of Concord Assembly, Order of Rainbow Girls, and was governor of Girls' State in 1951 .

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William Sanford Sr., of Oroville, Bill is a graduate of the College of Pacific in Stockton, where he was president of the Student Body in 1952, and a member of Senior Men's Honorary Society, Blue Key.

Miller-Reynolds Wedding Held in Garden Setting

In a garden setting at the Church of the Nazarene, Sunnyvale Avenue, Margaret Miller, formerly of Pleasant Hill, became the bride of Corp. Melvin P. Reynolds last Sunday.

Ray S. Miller, father of the bride, and former pastor of the church, played a dual role at the ceremony — that of giving the bride away and officiating at the ceremony. He was assisted in the ceremony by C. E. Mallory, of San Bruno, also a former pastor of the local church.

The single-ring ceremony was performed at 3 p.m. with Mrs. Marilyn Crofford of Antioch, sister of the bride- as matron-of-honor. The bride's other attendants were Lena Reynolds, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, and Carolyn and Lou Miller, junior attendants.

Best man was Alton L. Reynolds, brother of the bridegroom.

The new Mrs. Reynolds is a graduate of Acalanes High School, class of 1952, where she was a member of the mixed chorus. Prior to her marriage, she was employed with the Walnut Creek City School of Music.

Corporal Reynolds, with the Institute of Food Service School, Ft. Ord, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Reynolds, Porterville. A graduate of the Porterville High School, Reynolds spent three years at the Pasadena College.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 205 Sierra Drive, Walnut Creek. For the present, the couple will reside at Seaside, near Fort Ord.

A "Mr. and Mrs." party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Silvius of Walnut Creek by Humpty Dumpty Chapter, Children's Home Society tomorrow night.

Chairman Mrs. Samuel Bradbard is assisted by Mesdames Robert N. Bovard, Albert E. Scott, T. S. Middough and Silvius.

Many members will attend at East Bay Council of Chapters Thursday to hear annual reports of the statewide private adoption agency.

To be installed at the June meeting are chapter officers elected May 12. They are Mrs. Warren J. Nattress, president; Mrs. Kenneth Beadle, vice president; Mrs. Scott, recording secretary; Mrs. Robert Mainhardt, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Arthur L. King, treasurer; and Mrs. Bovard, parliamentarian.

Delphians Hold Discussion Meet

The Sigma Epsilon Chapter of the Delphian Society in Walnut Creek met May 14 in the Berkeley Savings and Loan Building.

The topic for discussion was "An Approach to Mutual Understanding." Mrs. Harry W. Thompson acted as moderator and the speakers were Mrs. Phillip Knox Sr., Mrs. E. T. Ewert, Mrs. Henry Brodsky and Mrs. Mark Hull.

This meeting completed the club's third course of study and discussion on patterns for modern living which included psychological, political and cultural patterns.

A luncheon was held at the Orinda Willows following this meeting where a gift was presented to Mrs. A. H. Macomber the outgoing president.

Dental Group has 'Friendship Tea'

The Women's Auxiliary of the East Bay Dental Societies will hold its "Friendship Tea" honoring new members and past presidents today at 1:30 p. m. at the garden of Mrs. Alfred E. Hughes, Berkeley.

The highlight of the tea will be the installation of new officers. Mrs. E. P. Fitzgerald of Oakland will install.

Acting as hostesses during the tea will be all members of the present board. Hostesses will include Mrs. C. Gold, Orinda; Mrs. Donald Priewe, Martinez; Mrs. I. Bornholdt, Walnut Creek; Mrs. K. G. Holcomb, Orinda; Mrs. Ronald Light, Orinda; Mrs. L. O. Bishop, Lafayette, and Mrs. Wilbur Fahden, Martinez.

New officers will include: president, Mrs. L. F. Temple; president-elect, Mrs. C. S. Lipp; treasurer, Mrs. W. E. Risedorph; secretary, Mrs. R. Reid.

Trustees: Mesdames W. Hanford Jr., L. M. Ellis, C. N. God, W. Freitas.

Chairmen of committees: membership, Mrs. K. G. Holcomb, Orinda; ways and means, Mrs. R. Light, Orinda; dental health, Mrs. R. DeWitt, Oakland; reservations, Mrs. W. Sheeran, Walnut Creek; philanthorpic, Mrs. A. D. Lange, Orinda; legislative, Mrs. Harry Wilson, Oakland; reception and decoration, Mrs. D. Priewe, Martinez; publicity, Mrs. N. Frug and Mrs. L. Bishop, Lafayette.

Home Club Will Talk 'Golden Fruit'

"Meals Using the Golden Fruit" will be the subject of the Orinda Home Club meeting and luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. D. V. Killingsworth, 2 Hacienda Circle.

The May and June meetings are being combined so election of officers will be held. Reservations may be made by calling Orinda 2368 or Orinda 2043. Luncheon will be prorated.

Please, oh Please!

Pretty please, don't think we've been out playing the ponies or sleeping in the basement because you couldn't raise us on the telephone these past six weeks.

We've been right here, ready and eager for that welcome (but almost non-existent) jingle. However, it appears that "The Voice with the Smile" has had its wires slightly crossed.

Our number was changed the first week in April to Lafayette 6273 (Atlantic 3-6273) but it seems the gals on the switchboards didn't get the word and had to let the old number clang merrily away (in some remote phone company nook), without being able to slip you the dope on the change.

Also the info operators have apparently been kept in the dark by the powers that be.

PLEASE DON'T STAY MAD AT US!

If you'll just call us at—we'll answer on the double.

Don Mermen Splash at Big Meet Today

Finals Will Be Held Tomorrow At Santa Clara

Today is the big day for high school swimmers, with the Acalanes Dons sending a host of qualifiers to Santa Clara for the qualifying heats of the North Coast Section Meet.

The finals get under way tomorrow, and, while Hayward rates the favorite role, the Dons figure to end up in the top three.

Tomorrow the Don trackmen take in the North Coast Meet at California's Edwards Field in Berkeley. Trials get under way at 10 a. m.

QUALIFIERS HERE take part in the State Track Meet at Cal Saturday, May 29, which climaxes the 1954 track season.

Best chance for the Dons to place in the State Meet appears to rest on the broad shoulders of Ray Williamson, who has been improving his tosses each week, copping the North Coast subsection meet last week, the county the previous week and placing second at the Fresno Relays last Saturday.

Next Tuesday's baseball schedule finds the Dons seeking to avenge a first-round defeat when they cross bats with Diablo at Concord.

LAS LOMAS and John Swett meet up at Crockett that day, and with the Knights coming strong the game is an even-steven affair.

Albany and Pleasant Hill tangle on the Acalanes field Tuesday. Inasmuch as the Pleasant Hill Rams have no home field of their own. Their home games are usually played at Diablo, but that diamond will be occupied with the Diablo-Don game.

ON THURSDAY the Dons will host the Pleasant Hill nine. Experience should prove the deciding factor in favor of the Acalanes team.

Pittsburg and Antioch have at it that day at the Pittsburg diamond. Antioch won a first meeting with a 4-run last-inning rally. Close, but the edge here goes to the Pirates.

Diablo travels to Alhambra Tuesday and looms as a winner over an Alhambra nine that has had difficulties all season long, as far as getting in the win column has been concerned.

At this writing, Alhambra seems firmly entrenched in the cellar.

Albany meets John Swett at Albany the same day and figures to wrap up the pennant, with home field and an earlier win over the Indians in the favor.

LAS LOMAS winds up its season Tuesday with the Crockett game, inasmuch as the Knights draw a bye Thursday.

Thursday's games ring down the curtain on the regular schedule, with only makeups to be played, some of which may canceled if they have no bearing on the final standings.

SPORTS

Cougars Lead, Dons Tie for 2nd

The Albany Cougars maintained their league first place standing with an 11-1 record when they waxed Antioch Tuesday by a 15-0 score, with Joe Dorsey not only pitching the win but also starring at bat with four for five.

The Dons pasted the Alhambra Bulldogs 11-1, using every player in the process and going into a tie for second with Antioch, both clubs showing a 10-3 record.

Mt. Diablo, in fourth place (9-3), thumped John Swett 17-3, with Swett committing 11 errors for a record of some sort. Swett is now sixth in the standings (4-8).

Pittsburg nailed Las Lomas 8-4. Tommy Leitz with three singles and Saul Rodriguez with a triple and a double, paced the Pitt nine, while Bob Cook with a double and single and Don Schuppert with two one-basers paced the losers.

Pitt now rests in fifth place with a 6 won, 7 lost record, while Las Lomas is tied for the eighth spot with Pleasant Hill, both showing two wins as against 10 losses, with the Alhambra Bulldogs entrenched in the cellar, with 11 losses and a pair of wins.

Legion Baseball Season to Open Here on Sunday

The Ninth District of the American Legion (Contra Costa County) will open the Junior Legion Baseball Season in Richmond on Sunday with an impressive ceremony.

District Chairman George Connell has organized the following posts who will place teams in the field: Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Danville, Concord, El Cerrito and Richmond.

The participating teams will all be present with their post colors; there will be band music, and the opening game will be played between last year's champions Richmond and El Cerrito.

The opening battery will be the Mayor of Richmond and Brick Laws, the owner of the Oaks.

Realty Mart to Hear Sheriff Candidates

Candidates for sheriff will address the Contra Costa Realty Mart breakfast Monday at 8 a.m. in El Nido Rancho, Lafayette. Lawrence Wallace is handling the program.

Dons Lose 1-0 To Cougars in Overtime Game

The Acalanes Varsity baseball team lost a heartbreaker to the Albany Cougars May 13 when they dropped a 1-0 decision in an overtime game at Albany.

The game, played before a capacity crowd, saw Red Jones for the Dons and Albany's Joe Dorsey hook up in a mound duel which many claimed was the best seen in these parts in a long, long time.

Neither club was able to score in the regular seven innings. It wasn't until the fatal eighth that the issue was decided.

AT THE END of seven the Dons had but one hit off Dorsey, a scratch infield single which Richard Munn beat out by a scant step.

Jones held the Cougar hitters hitless until the bottom of the seventh, when, with two away, First Baseman Borreani hit a single between third and short, giving each chucker a one-hit shutout at the end of the regulation seven innings.

In the bottom of the eighth, after the Dons had failed to score in their turn at bat, Jones had two down. He had struck out Ray Green. Larsen had grounded out, short to first.

CHARLIE McDONALD started the fireworks when he singled. Ron Hansen doubled. Dorsey, next at bat, was purposely walked to reach Jurwick, who had been retired three times in a row.

But the deal backfired when, with a one-and-one count, Jurwick hit a blooper over second, scoring McDonald with the all-important winning run.

The win left Albany in undisputed first place, while the Dons dropped into the No. 2 spot.

Donald Doyle Gets Statewide Endorsement

Assemblyman Donald Doyle has received the endorsement of five statewide business organizations, it was announced today by the Doyle Campaign Committee.

They include California Grocers Association, California Federated Institute, California Retail Hardware Association, Retail Tobacco Dealers Association and the Automotive Maintenance and Garage Association.

Carla Nelle One Of Top Winners In Hunter Trials

Almost 3000 spectators gathered in Concord Saturday and Sunday to witness the Sixth Annual Spring Hunter Trials, Olympic Event, and Polo Games in which Carla Nelle of Walnut Creek was one of those winning top honors.

Sponsored jointly by the Concord-Mt. Diablo Trail Ride Association and the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, the show opened with dressage tests at 10 a. m. Saturday and carried through two days until 5 p. m. Sunday.

FOLLOWING is a summary of local winners:

Individual Olympic competition including dressage, endurance test and show jumping test: fourth place, Carla Nelle of Walnut Creek, up on Rogue Fox, owned by herself.

Team Olympic competitions, including all phases: first place to the Central Valley team, composed of Carla Nelle, Thomas Bunn and Whit Kennedy; third, Mt. Diablo, Linda Engelhart of Clayton, on Mandoon; Rick Kraemer of Walnut Creek, on Danny-D, and Linda Nelle of Walnut Creek, on Red Wing.

Working Hunters: third, Carla Nelle on Rogue Fox.

Open Hunter Stake: seventh, Carla Nelle on Rogue Fox.

Green Hunters: third, Carla Nelle, up on Cornish.

Children's Hunters: first, Linda Nelle on Red Wing; second, Rick Kraemer on Danny-D, and fourth, Linda Englehart on Mandoon.

Dons Qualify for North Coast Meet

A host of Acalanes Dons qualified for the North Coast Section Track Meet to be held tomorrow at the University of California oval, formally known as Edwards Field.

The Dons did a bit of all right in last Friday's qualifying subsection meet at Richmond High. They led all Contra Costa entries, placing third as a team, behind Alameda and Richmond.

Qualifiers for the Dons in the Varsity division were Ray Williamson, who copped a first in the shot with 55 feet, 11¾ inches for a new record; Jim Hart, who was in the runner-up spot with 51 feet, 10¼ inches and who nailed down a second in the discus with a heave of 141 feet; Ray Oslin with a tie for second in the pole vault at 11 feet, 9 inches and Stan Mumford who tied Oslin at the 11-foot, 9-inch mark.

IN THE BEE events, the Dons qualified two men when Alden Robertson romped to a fifth place in the 120-yard low hurdles and Dick Cory tossed the lightweight discus to a third place.

Tomorrow's meet at Cal finds the place-winners vying for places in the State Track Meet to be held at Edwards Field Saturday, May 29.

At tomorrow's meet the qualifying events will take place at 10 a.m.

At the State Meet, only finals will take place. Starting time will be 1 p.m.

2 Games Tonight Open Full Week Of Softball Play

Tonight's softball play in the Walnut Creek City League gets under way with Super Saver showing in an exhibition game with the Yacht Club of Martinez, while Forbrag's tangles with Grodins in a league game in the nightcap.

On Monday Rick's seeks its third straight league win at State Farm's expense in the first game of a doubleheader, with Super Saver and Tri-City in the second game.

ON TUESDAY Super Saver shows in an exhibition while Tiny's and Forbrag's have at it in the 9 p. m. game.

Wednesday finds Forbrag's in the opener with an exhibition tilt, while Grodins shows with State Farm.

On Thursday it's Tri-City and Tiny's Hut in the starter, while the so-called weaker sex gets into the act when the Walnettes strut their stuff in an exhibition.

NEXT FRIDAY the gals travel to Alameda to take part in the Alameda League with a 9 p. m. game.

Also next Friday, Grodins and Super Saver are scheduled for the 7:30 game, while Rick's and Forbrag's close the week's play in the No. 2 spot.

Our want ads carry good news for you.

Bulldogs Bitten By Dons, 11-1

The Alhambra Bulldogs found the Acalanes Dons to be ingracious hosts Tuesday when the Acalanes baseball nine unloosened a 10-hit barrage to sink the inept Bulldogs by an 11-1 score.

It was the Dons all the way as they held the Bulldogs scoreless in the first innings and then went on to score three runs on three hits in their first time at bat.

Alhambra did get on the scoreboard for a lone tally in the second inning when Jerry Huff singled and scored after advancing to third on a fielder's choice.

Alhambra, incidentally, garnered but four hits in the seven inning contest, with Huff collecting three of the safeties.

THE DONS added four runs in the second, three in the fourth and one in the fifth, to cop the win, while using every player on the roster in the process.

Hal Cox went the route for the Alhambra nine, taking a battering in the process, while the Dons used three chuckers, John Conley going the first two, Red Jones the third and fourth and Mike Barrett finishing up.

EACH SIDE had three strikeouts on the ledger, while Richard Munn, Bob Gray and Conley led the hitting for the Acalanes club, each getting two for three.

The win gave the Dons a 10-3 record for second place, behind the league-leading Albany Cougars.

Model Railroad Show Opens This Evening

Central Contra Costa County members of the East Bay Model Engineers Society will join other model railroad enthusiasts at the clubs' 20th Anniversary Model Railroad Show tonight, tomorrow and Sunday at the clubhouse at 4075 Halleck Street, at the foot of Park-Avenue, Emeryville. Hours are 7:30 to 10 tonight, 2 to 10 p. m. tomorrow and Sunday.

A special feature will be the first Pacific Coast showing of a model of the first atomic energy powered locomotive. This will be one of over 2000 models.

Last Saturday the club was host to 200 handicapped children at a preview of the show.

"Speeders" speed up line patrolling. Many of Pacific Telephone's long distance lines must cross rugged country that's hard to reach on foot. But in cases where out-of-the-way lines parallel a railroad, telephone crews often patrol them in specially designed speeders like the one above. Summer or winter, these handy little vehicles click off mileage in a hurry, hustle men and equipment to make repairs when they're needed. By saving valuable time, they help us cut costs, hold down the price of telephone service. Pacific Telephone works to make your telephone a bigger value every day.

Gas and electricity are cheap in California

The Hamptons, newcomers to California, were pleased to discover that all their appliances cost less to operate here.

Their P. G. and E. bill in one month was $8.47

Where they used to live, the same amount of gas and electricity would cost $10.01

Why not take full advantage of California's low rates for gas and electricity—by putting the money you save into more timesaving, work-saving appliances. Enjoy better living for yourself and your family!

"My big new refrigerator-freezer does double-duty for just 84¢ a month!"

"I was really surprised when I found out how little it costs to run my wonderful new refrigerator-freezer combination. Imagine running a big refrigerator with all the new features like moist cold and automatic defrosting—plus the spacious food freezer—for just 84 cents a month! And the rest of our appliances are just as inexpensive to operate."

RETT-WHITE FORD DEALERSHIP OFFICIALLY OPENS MAY 21ST

RETT TURNER, president of Rett-White Ford dealership. His twenty year Ford background should bring top-flight Ford sales and service to this area.

New Owner Pledges "Personalized" Sales and Service Policy, Liberal Trade-in Allowances, Fast Deliveries, Low-Cost Financing...

PROMISES ALL-NEW POLICY WITH TRAINED AUTOMOTIVE STAFF

A "new-comer" to this area, yet a veteran with over twenty years in all phases of automotive sales and service, Rett Turner, president of Rett-White Ford dealership here promises a policy of unequalled Ford sales and service.

"I feel exceptionally fortunate," said Turner, "in being able to take over the reins of a Ford dealership in this thriving community. In all sincerity, I plan to make my home here and to play if possible, a part in its civic, cultural and business growth.

"I have endeavored to surround myself with a highly trained and hand-picked sales and service organization and have pledged myself to constantly seek improvement whenever and wherever possible.

"If I have inherited any adverse factors in taking over this Ford dealership, I will make every effort to straighten them out. My one and only request to the people of this community is, that regardless of whether they are or are not a new or used car prospect, that they drop in, if for nothing more than an opportunity to get better acquainted."

Colorful Career In Auto Field

Rett Turner, president of Rett-White Ford dealership boasts as colorful a background in selling as can be found anywhere in the auto industry.

Through sheer salesmanship, Turner in two separate occasions sold himself from the bottom rung of the sales ladder to the vice presidency of two of the west's largest metropolitan Ford dealerships.

There is probably no one man in the entire Ford sales organization nationally who can or ever will equal Turner's personal sales records in everything from used cars to new car and commercial fleet sales.

A native of Texas and a stranger to California, Turner arrived in the Bay area literally off a submarine at the end of World War II. He is a Navy veteran with six years underseas duty in the South Pacific.

Turner, a salesman's salesman, brings to this community a wealth of first-hand Ford sales and service "know-how."

Sales Staff Out To Break All Records

With Ford sales in "number one" place nationally, says Jack Welch, sales manager of Rett-White Ford sales, far be it from me to let our sales position in the Contra Costa area take a back seat to anyone.

"We, here at Rett-White Ford Sales, in our effort to hold our substantial sales lead, have geared our sales staff to grass root selling — Every salesman on our staff, through a conscientious series of sales meetings, is geared to do a thorough yet friendly and courteous selling job."

Welch comes to the Rett-White Ford Sales organization well-trained in Ford tradition. His father for over thirty years before him served as a Ford dealer in the Bay area. Young Welch, until his father's recent retirement, served a 10-year apprenticeship in all phases of Ford selling from new and used cars to fleet and commercial operations.

"With a highly-trained, hand-picked selling team," says Welch, "I firmly believe that we can give the motorists of this area a better brand of all-around service than can be obtained anywhere in the mertopolitan areas.

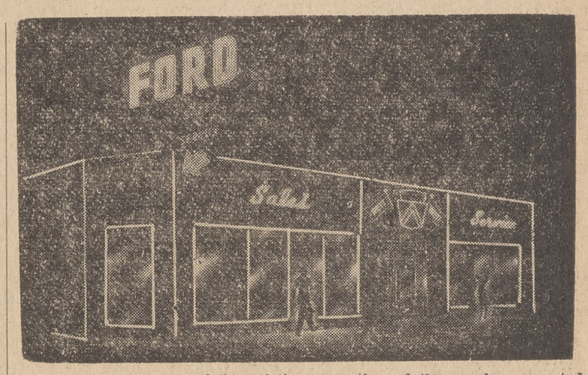

SALES — Jack Welch, Mgr.
The man you'll meet when the happy day arrives and you become a proud new Ford owner.

MANAGEMENT - Ed Hertzig, Mgr.
Every phase of a successful auto dealership hinges on a smooth running, efficient management. Heading this all important post, Ed Hertzig comes to the Rett-White Ford dealership with over 15 years of business management with leading auto dealers in the U.S.

SERVICE — John Muzzy, Mgr.
Books have been written on the importance of service to any organization. John Muzzy is too modest to admit that he is credited with being one of the best Ford service and repair men in tht business. A quick visit to the Rett-White service department will prove this point.

ALL LIT UP — An artist's artistic conception of the newly renovated Rett-White Ford dealership as it will appear all lit up with its new neon signs.

Salesmen Pledge Better Brand Of Service

"The driving public is in the saddle these days, he has to be sold not only on the product he buys, but sold on the man who does a selling job to him."

This is the opinion of all Rett-White Ford salesmen.

"No longer are salesmen order takers, the good old days have gone forever," says Jack Welch, super Rett-White salesman. "My job of selling doesn't end when my customer drives out the door. It's my job to see that he gets complete satisfaction as long as he is a Ford owner."

Roy Pasquini of the Rett-White sales staff voices the same opinion. "However," says Roy, "I make it a point to stress service after I once make a new car sale."

Orval Berry, a veteran Ford salesman, agrees with his brother salesman but adds, "I believe in the 'door-bell' approach. I believe in good old grass root salesmanship, to demonstrate the car, and take the whole family into the deal."

Lee Winetrout, with four years of Ford salesmanship behind him, believes in the "housewife" approach. "The housewife," says he, "is usually the keeper of the family budget, the one member of the family that it doesn't pay to underestimate."

Al Baldini puts his best foot forward through his simplified explanations of financing. "There's too much 'hocus-pocus' in financing," says Al. "Confuse the customer with higher mathematics and you lose the deal."

Gene Pleau feels that most new car buyers know what they want, why they want it and what they can pay. "I let my customers do most of the talking," says Gene. "I simply stand by to answer their questions, technical or otherwise, as intelligently as possible."

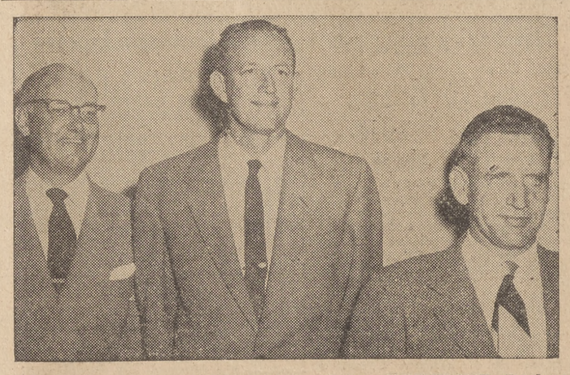

"High pressure in new car selling," says Bob Jackson, "is a thing of the past. Most new car buyers know as much as we do about the car we represent. A fair allowance for a trade-in, simplified financing and assurance of top flight service, I find always pays off."

Budget minded George Valente feels that if he can fit the car into a prospect's monthly family budget, the sale is consummated. "With today's high cost of living," says George, "the monthly cost of owning a new car is all-important. If the terms are right, the deal is right."

Jim Richardson goes along with the theory that it's the little things that count. "If you can find out even to the most minute detail what your prospect wants, the only thing left is to get his name on the dotted line."

ROY PASQUINI and GENE PLEAU, two of the best in the business when it comes to selling you your new Ford.

BOB JACKSON, JIM RICHARDSON and LEE WINETROUT, the long and short of it but all on the same level when it comes to giving you the "deal of a lifetime" on a new Ford.

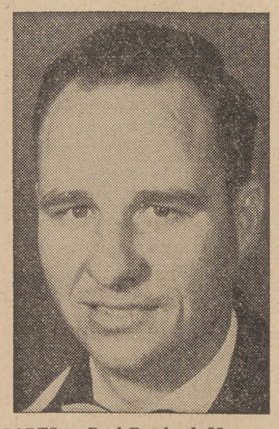

GEORGE VALENTE, ORVAL BERRY and AL BALDINI, a three-way winning sales combination. Here are three local boys who are making good in a big way as star salesmen for Rett-White.

USED CAR LOT — Spaciousness with plenty of display space is the keynote to the Rett-White used car lot. Conveniently located next door, used car prospects are promised top "buys" at low cost.

SERVICE FACILITIES — Modern, up-to-date and exclusive with beautiful mural walls. The only artistic, yet useful, service department to be found anywhere in the U.S.

BEAUTY with BRAINS, Jo Stone and Valarie Simmons
It always takes a little beauty to fill out the ranks of any business organization. Jo Stone and Valarie Simmons play their roles well. Valarie has the lilting voice you hear when you call YEllowstone 4-6714 for sales or service. She puts you in the right hands with a minimum loss of time on your part. Jo is the gal in the background who serves as an able all-around assistant to Mr. Ed Hertzig, business manager of Rett-White Motors. We hate to tell you but Jo is also the gal who sends you your bill but at the same time helps make paying it a pleasure.

FLEET — Kirby Hunt, Mgr.
Kirby Hunt is Rett-White Ford dealership's answer to Ford fleet and commercial buyers. Hunt, a veteran of thirty years automotive background is probably one of the best trained salesmen in this specialized field in America. The Rett-White Ford dealership will make an extensive sales effort to take care of fleet and commercial users within the Contra Costa area. Special truck servicing personnel and equipment will play an important role in the Rett-White Ford sales organization.

PARTS — Paul Rowland, Mgr.
Over $50,000 worth of genuine Ford parts will be stocked at the Rett-White Ford dealership. Watching over this all important stock department is Paul Rowland, who has spent the best years of his life building an enviable reputation as one of the best Ford parts men in the business.

Acalanes Parents Up Scholarships As Sale Success

Acalanes Parents Club scholarships will be increased from $150 to $200 because of unprecedented support of the unit's mythical cake cale, President Mrs. Donald Krotz of Orinda said this week.

Net profit of the sale was $730, according to Mrs. Burwell Spurlock of Lafayette and Mrs. Gene Elleermeyer of Orinda, ways and means co-chairmen.

Four college scholarships will be given to outstanding high school students. The club treasury will add the necessary $70 to the sale funds.

The project was reported on at the meeting of the club Monday in the school gym. In addition, 10 acts of student talent were presented, according to Victor T. Johnson of Lafayette, program chairman.

Girl Scout Camp Sign-Ups Open

The Diablo Valley Girl Scouts' summer camp in the high Sierras will be open to non-registered scouts from now on until the sessions are full. The first session starts July 8 and ends July 21. Second session is from July 23 to August 5 and third session is from August 6 to 19.

Anyone interested should contact the Girl Scout office in Lafayette right away, as the vacancies will not last long, a spokesman said. Camp Sierra Woodlands is about 200 miles from the bay area, and eight miles from Sierra City on the famous Gold Lake Road.

The site contains 14 acres of wooded hills and mountain meadows, abundant in lakes and streams. The elevation of 6000 feet insures freedom from poison oak and snakes.

For entry blanks and information, write or phone Marie Doty, P. O. Box 726, Lafayette, Phone: Yellowstone 4-9725. Entry blank must be signed by parent of contestant.

Coffee Party for Judge Houser

Judge Fredrick F. Houser, Republican candidate for lieutenant governor will be guest of honor at a coffee party Monday from 10 a.m. to 12 Noon at the home of Mrs. Arthur Carlson, Del Amigo Road, Danville.

All interested women living in the Diablo area are invited to attend and meet Judge Houser, who resides in Los Angeles.

Orinda women may obtain additional information from Mrs. Thomas Barrows, president of the Orinda Republican Women's Club.

Y Indian Guides Hold Induction

An active group of Y Indian Guides met in the Methodist Church in Walnut Creek May 7 for an induction ceremony.

The Y Indian Guides are boys, younger than Cub Scouts, who always attend meetings with their dads, also active members. Joining in the induction rites were the Crows of Lafayette, a group from Walnut Creek, a tribe from Orinda and two from Gregory Gardens.

John Price, Y. M. C. A. secretary for Contra Costa County, was in charge.

Attending from Lafayette were Bill Banks, "Red Hawk"; Michael Banks, "Flashing Lightning"; Bob Brackett, "Standing Horse"; David Brackett, "Tall Feather"; Lou Cottle, "White Deer"; Billy Cottle, "Sitting Bull"; John Hopkins, "Silver Bow"; Keith Hopkins, "Red Arrow"; Max Coons, "Big Bear"; Greg Coons, "Little Bear"; Joe Roper, "Tomahawk"; Hal Roper, "Red Feather"; Adin Wilson, "Tippy Canoe", and Jimmy Wilson, "White Cloud".

Richardson Gets A. F. L. Endorsement

B. W. "Dick" Richardson, candidate for sheriff of Contra Costa County, last week received the unanimous endorsement of Contra Costa's AFL Political Education League. He was given the backing of the league at its meeting following recommendations by its screening committee.

St. Mary's to Be Emergency Center

St. Mary's Colege will soon receive a $25,000 field hospital unit, including everything from water purification equipment to X-ray machines, which will permit the college to become a complete hospital in case of any bombing or natural disaster.

The oak-shaded campus would be converted into one giant hospital in case of emergency, permitting casualties to be brought in for processing even before doctors could arrive.

The Christian Brothers who operate the college have volunteered to trake training in first aid, radiological monitoring and various phases of hospital administration, in order to be ready for any kind of emergency.

This plan was announced recently by State Civil Defense officials who met with members of the Providence Hospital staff to hear plans for a CD "first" — the hospital's own plan for disaster.

In case of emergency, the area would be staffed by doctors from all parts of the East Bay.

Constables Can Do Policing!

What is the constable's job? Now's the time to find out; we vote for constable in the June 8 primary elections.

Investigate and you find out that he has various duties.

He is bailiff of the judicial court in the district he serves — he is on call to the judge, he is responsible for seeing that juries are made up when required.

He is in charge of serving civil papers within his district — summons, subpoenas and other types of legal papers.

He performs the varied tasks of a police officer when called by residents of his district; he investigates thefts, prowlers, accidents and, if nothing else, he must stand by until city police or sheriff's deputies arrive on the scene.

He has all of these major responsibilities and more.

But you also find that the constable's job is different in each district. At the heart of the matter is the question of how each constable distributes his time among these separate tasks.

In the Walnut Creek Judicial District which includes Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Canyon and Moraga and Alamo, 90 per cent of the job is serving civil papers, according to Constable Clinton Jones who was recently appointed to fill the unexpired term of Russell Stow who retired.

On first sight, it would seem that the constable in the Walnut Creek district cannot be expected to have much time for police work or patrolling.

After all, one thinks, if he must serve so many civil papers and still do his bookkeeping and serve as court bailiff, when could he do anything else.

But this is not the whole picture. And it is good that it should be so, because our area has a real need for all the police protection it can get.

Serving civil papers is a job the constable does not have to do all by himself — for this reason: a fee is collected for each legal paper served, along with mileage expenses, and this fee is enough to pay for someone else's time.

In fact, constables in the Walnut Creek Judicial District have, and will presumably continue to find helpers who willl serve civil papers in return for these fees.

The fees go to the constable himself; they are his to use as he chooses.

This does not mean that the constable can turn the whole job over to such a helper. But it does mean that he can cut out enough time to permit him to do more police work.

In the Walnut Creek District such time could be well spent, for example, in patrolling a number of neighborhoods where residential streets are serving as major traffic routes and drivers frequently refuse to recognize speed limits and pedestrian rights.

These comments are not made in reference to either of the campaigns of the two candidates for constable in the Walnut Creek District, Jones and his opponent, Vincent Young, a sergeant in the Walnut Creek City Police Department.

Instead, they are intended to point up one of the most significant things we might ask of the man each of us will vote for June 8.

Because elections are around the corner, it is an opportune time to think twice about the constable's job and realize that this elected law enforcement officer might well be able to help solve some of the problems of policing unincorporated suburban areas.

Here's the dime he couldn't stop on!

GREEN CROSS FOR SAFETY

Think you can stop your car on a dime? Don't kid yourself. Youngsters at play don't always give you time to. Better slow down near schools and playgrounds. A dime's a pretty small target.

Be Careful—the child you save may be your own!

Acalanes Officials Ask 'Yes' Vote on $1.75 Tax Limit in Today's Election

Acalanes High School District officials ask citizens to join with them and the numerous community organizations backing the $1.75 high school tax limit proposal by voting "yes" in today's elections.

School officials declared the public must face up to the fact that if the $1.75 fails the district's income will revert to 75 cents per $100 valuation, a figure on which it would be near impossible to run the district's expansion and educational program as this area has known it.

TRUSTEE CARL NEWBURY previously pointed out that, "although the board has not formulated a definite idea of what would be cut from the school program if the limit is not passed, these things have happened in a San Francisco peninsula community where a similar proposal was not passed.

"The teaching staff was ordered cut 30 per cent, class sizes were increased 50 per cent; all transportation facilities were eliminated; music, health, physical education and other services were eliminated among many other things."

In addition to these possibilities, Newbury continued, "the Acalanes District school building program, which is required to meet the tripling of high school enrollments in this area by 1960, would certainly suffer drastic changes."

ASKED WHY they had not called for a continuance of the present $1.50 tax limit which expires in June, Trustee William Freeman explained, "The district might be able to squeeze by for a short time at the current limit, but succeeding years would definitely require an upward change in the rate.

"It would be unrealstic to continue the $1.50 limit and have to go through the expense of going to the people again and again for changes to a higher limit each time a rate adjustment is necessary," he said.

Freeman emphasized that the "$1.75 limit is not to be the anticipated rate in the near future. The limit has been $1.50 for the past five years, but economies imposed by the school board have kept the actual average rate for that same petriod at $1.33."

LAST YEAR the Acalanes District had the lowest operating costs of any high school district in the county, Freeman stated.

What They Say . . .

Do You Use Your Public Library?

With the work which has been started in many of our communities for the improvement or construction of library facilities, The SUN this week turned to residents to ask, "Do you use the public library in your community?"

Considerable interest was evinced in the library situation, as can be seen by the following answers:

"I GO EVERY WEEK, and both of my children and my husband have cards," said Mrs. Gordon Pates, 3665 Boyer Circle, Lafayette. "We generally find what we want, and they are always very nice at the library. If they don't have what we want, they will take the name of the book and the author and get it if possible. They have all the latest books."

Mrs. Leonard H. Pankonin, 77 Meadow View Road, Orinda, commented, "No, but after seeing the stories in The SUN I guess I'll be using it. I've been using the one in Lafayette, and the hours are good there."

DICK PAPE, son of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Pape, 1122 Orchard Road, Lafayette, said, "Yes, every once in a while, generally for reference or something like that. Usually it's when I have a report at school."

Mrs. George L. Parnham, 129 Lombardy Lane, Orinda, said, "I haven't used it yet, but I know where it is. I read a lot, but much of my material comes from rental libraries."

"No, I don't," said Mrs. V. R. Parvin of 1590 Shirley Drive, Pleasant Hill. "I belong to one of those book clubs, so I get two books a month, and that's about enough, along with the magazines."

"I do, spasmodically," replied Mrs. John A. Courtney of 1966 Peggy Drive, Pleasant Hill. "I don't use it as much as I used to, but I do use it."

BERT J. KONING of 132 Belle Avenue, Walnut Creek answered, "Well, my daughter does."

"Yes, we do, particularly for the children," said Edwin R. Shirey of 177 Miramonte Road, Walnut Creek. "It's wonderful for the children. They have a lot of books anyway, but they can get more and it's good experience."

AAUW Approves Tax Authorization

Endorsement of the Lafayette Elementary District bond issue and the higher tax limitation issue for Acalanes High School District has been given by Walnut Creek Branch, American Association of University Women.

In addition, the unit is sponsoring Mrs. Shirley M. Madsen as a candidate for the Walnut Creek Elementary School District Board of Trustees.

Mrs. Madsen was chosen to broaden the board's outlook, according to spokesmen. She was chosen on the basis of business, administrative and teaching experience and as having a woman's outlook.

Mrs. Elliot J. Hartman has been chosen to represent the branch on the Lafayette Citizens Committee for education. The unit has also sent questionnaires to Walnut Creek school principals.

Localites Hear UN Head Speak at Cal

Mrs. Harvey Lyon, Mrs. James Perry, Mrs. Sam Peters, Mrs. Dorothy Lee and Mrs. Paul Gaboury heard the address by United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold at University of California Convocation in Berkeley, May 13.

Mrs. Sam Peters, chairman of dinner arrangements, announces that the public may obtain tickets at Lommel's Creamery in Walnut Creek for the Mt. Diablo UN Council dinner Thursday at 6:30 p.m., Las Lomas High School.

Three clergymen will be featured speakers: Brother M. Robert, St. Mary's College! Rabbi William Stern, Temple Sinai, Oakland, and Rev. James C. Upshaw, pastor of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church.

Each will give his views of the UN. A colored film of the late H-bomb explosion at Eniwetok will be displayed by Richard Lommel.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Because I like to see credit given where credit is due, I wish to remark on your recent "Under the Sun" column regarding the office of constable.

While conditions you state may be true elsewhere in the county, from personal experience I can say your statement that "the office of constable in this county has deteriorated to a do-nothing job" is unfounded as far as duties of Walnut Creek constable are concerned.

Because of the fine cooperation the Canyon Community Club received from Constable Clinton Jones during our April 4-10 "Clean-up Week" I, as chairman of our drive, made inquiries after your column appeared as to the dutiés of the Walnut Creek constable, which brought out the following information:

CLINTON JONES took office on March 2 of this year, appointed by the County Board of Supervisors upon recommendation of retiring Constable Russ Stow. Constable Jones operates under the Walnut Creek Judicial District, which includes Alamo, Walnut Creek, Lafayette, Orinda, Moraga, Canyon and St. Mary's College. It is one of the 17 judicial districts in the county, each of which has one constable (except Richmond, which employs several men).

In msot district, constabulary work entails 25 percent paper work, with 75 percent of the time being left for criminal work. Because of the amount of paper work done by the Walnut Creek Judicial District (second only to Richmond in the county in amount), the constable must spend 90 percent of his time on civil duties, allowing only 10 percent for other work.

He is on 24-hour call. He acts as bailiff in the court of Judge Clifford Thomson; he serves all court papers, including those sent to Walnut Creek from all over the state.

HE MUST personally serve all Judicial Court jury summonses as well as contact all jurors for any county coroner's inquest for his district. He must investigate any matter brought to the attention of the court, from illegal garbage dumping and childish pranks to armed robbery.

I heartily agree with you that "we desperately need better law enforcement." However, I believe it is more than a one-man job. I would suggest editorializing on the necessity for more law-enforcement officers to operate in each district, and in particular in our section of this fast-growing county.

With scheduled large developments to start soon, additional population will bring additional problems. Aside from the dire need for more law-enforcement officers at the present time, I believe that more men should be trained before the lack of law-enforcement becomes a grater problem.

YOUR SUGGESTION that "the next constable could spend an hour or two every day driving through our neighborhoods to enforce the speed limits" is, if you will pardon me, laughable inasmuch as there are over 16 schools in the Walnut Creek Judicial District.

Should the officer so patrol even one school, I can hear certain taxpayers object that tax money is being spent on "driving around." On the other hand, it is necessary to correct present law-breaking practices of speeding by schools. I would suggest the appointment of dollar-a-year deputy constables to police each school in the district.

In regard to your reference that "he could work on trash dumping problems," Constable Jones, shortly after his appointment, publicly announced a "declaration of war on roadside rubbish and garbage dumpers."

IT WAS THROUGH this published statement that the Canyon Community Club, in line with our clean-up campaign, contacted Constable Jones to request his aid in removal of three cars junked along our roads (which request previously sent to the sheriff's office brought no results).

Mr. Jones located owners of the cars and ordered their removal. He was instrumental as our contact with county officials at Martinez in having county roadsides cleaned up. Roads in this area are now some of the cleanest in the county, according to an official's report .

As far as law enforcement is concerned, perhaps people who live in areas included in the Walnut Creek Judicial District (formerly Third Township) are unaware that they have a police officer nearer than Martinez.

Constable Jones may be contacted at any time by phone or through his one-way car radio, the number of which is 877. His residence phone is Yellowstone 4-2195; his phone at work is Yellowstone 4-8027.

Stop the brickbats & get together

Joe McFarland, a friend of mine who lives in Fair Oaks in the Pleasant Hill area, phoned the other day to chat about the Sanitary District situation. Joe is chairman of the Pleasant Hill Civic Council.

He was perturbed over the controversy growing out of the recent sewer bond election, in which the bond issue proposed was overwhelmingly defeated by the heavy NO vote in Pleasant Hill. Since then, a barrage of censure and recriminations has been aimed at Pleasant Hill. This probably will increase when the district starts billing each home $2 to $4 per month for a sewer "use tax," as well as increasing the tax rate.

But I agree with Joe that now is the time to stop debating who's right or wrong. What's done is done — so let's get together and work together. Nothing can be gained by starting inter-community battles between Pleasant Hill and Orinda-Moraga and/or Lafayette-Walnut Creek. Our problems, our interests, our needs are similar in so many ways that it would be stupid not to cooperate.

A perfect example of close cooperation grew out of a meeting at my house almost two years ago, when the representatives of the major improvement associations of the entire area gathered to establish the Citizens Advisory Committee to the Sanitary District. This was real teamwork — and we were all rewarded by the excellent job performed by the committee.

Wider representation needed

Joe mentioned another controversial issue — the appointment of Campbell MacPhail of Lafayette to the Sewer Board. The controversy is not over MacPhail, but that he is from Lafayette and was appointed the very night Elliott Johnson unexpectedly resigned. (Everyone seems to argee that Campbell is a hard working, level-headed man.)

Since the resignation was not on the agenda, I believe the board made a mistake in taking action that very night. And although there is no written or unwritten rule, it would be better if the board had wider representation from our communities. There are three directors from Lafayette, one each from Pleasant Hill and Orinda. Certainly Walnut Creek should be represented.

However, directors should not be selected solely on the basis of geography. It is of utmost importance to have high-caliber men who are willing to serve. Good men can be found in all our communities. It would be a bad mistake if the September 15 election of two District board members becomes a fight among the communities. Cool heads, sound thinking and cooperation are needed.

I mentioned to Joe that the old idea of an informal federation of improvement clubs in Central Contra Costa County is certainly needed. What do you think?

Five star prediction

A-la-Drew Pearson, let's give with a prediction: Another sewer bond election will be called — probably in September. If so, it should be held September 15, along with the election of directors.

Had a phone call from Daryl F. Hutchins, Walnut Creek. Very politely and cordially, he took exception to my recent column which questioned if he really was a serious candidate for sheriff. He said I could tell how serious he is when I see his billboards and campaign literature.

The SUN is considering sending a bill to Jerry Gill for the space used in publishing his critical letter several weeks ago. It was printed as a SUN letter-to-the-editor; but Mr. Gill or someone published it as a paid advertisement in the Gazette in Martinez.

We're receiving more and more letters to the editor which are unsigned — so they have to be tossed in the waste basket. We'll withhold your name, if you so request, but please sign them.

A message was sent to The SUN that if we'd quit riding a certain candidate, this other outfit would support Harry Brown for sheriff. I hadn't realized we were "riding" the guy —but in any event, our answer was "Nuts, we don't deal."

The primary election is less than three weeks away. Who are you going to vote for — or for whom are you going to vote?

Spencer Macky to Speak to Artists

Next meeting of the Diablo Art Association will be held Monday, 8 p. m. at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Walnut Creek.

Members and the public are invited to attend and hear the guest speaker, Dr. Spencer Macky of the California School of Arts and Crafts, Oakland, whose subject will be "The Problem of the Artist Living in a Small Community."

Dr. Macky has long been one of the leading artists and teachers in the Bay Area and has been intimately associated with the development of art activities in this region for many years. He was born in New Zealand and graduated from the National Gallery School of Painting in Melbourne, then studied for the next six years at European art centers before coming to the United States in 1911.

Since that time he taught painting at the California School of Arts and Crafts until 1920, and been dean and professor of painting and drawing at the California School of Fine Arts in San Francisco from 1917-1944.

For the past 10 years Dr. Macky has been president of the School of Arts and Crafts. His work has been exhibited widely and is represented in many collections. Several of his pictures will be shown at this meeting.
